Clements, 1990-06-01 This is the first systematic and thorough study of mysticism or contemplation in these three seventeenth century poets and in three modern writers It not only clarifies the very confused issue of mysticism in seventeenth century poetry but also connects seventeenth century poets with modern literature and science through the contemplative tradition from the Bible and Plato and Church fathers and important mystics of the Middle Ages through Renaissance and modern contemplatives The transformative and redemptive power of contemplative poetry or holy writing regardless of genre or discipline is prominent throughout the book and the relevance indeed the vital necessity of such poetry and of the living contemplative tradition to our apocalyptic modern world is discussed in the last chapter In this chapter attention is given to modern science especially to the new physics and to philosophical and mystical writings of eminent scientists

Shakespeare's Drama in Poetry Alessandro Serpieri, 2018-05-01 This volume presents for the first time in English a selection of seminal studies originally published in Italian on the dramatic potential of Shakespeare's Sonnets providing a crucial contribution to a recently revived debate on their inherent dramatic dimension These studies long antedate the recent attention internationally dedicated to the formal and semiotic functions of the communicative structure of the sonnets providing the basis for a new perception of their peculiar capacity to perform speech acts within dramatically defined situations The first longest section is dedicated to a discussion of the so called Sonnets of Immortality where the poet struggles with Time over the future of the fair youth providing the argumentative premise upon which issues of mortality and loss running through the whole collection are defined in the agonistic terms of human defiance of Time's destructive power There follow two essays devoted to Sonnets 33 and 29 and to the last sonnets for the young friend respectively Here the poet abandons the battlefield of human mortality and engages with the tensions and conflicts of affection and moral duty against the backdrop of an intrinsically conflicting world model showing a medieval symbolic universe traversed by incipient yet radical sceptical stances These poems interlace fictionality and biography constructing a lyrical drama where the I poet features as an extraordinarily artificial yet all too real voice
