

Recycle now!

by Marie Thom

Our world's resources will not last
They're quickly running out.
"Recycle now, no time to lose!"
Is what we need to shout.
Piles of litter in the streets
And rubbish on the ground.
Sad decaying landscapes
Everywhere you look around.

People walking past the bins
Drop rubbish from their hands.
We'll soon be swamped with growing mess
Does no-one understand?

Kicking cans around the street
Is surely just a game?
But when a creature dies inside
Then who should take the blame?

Plastic bags float on the sea
And cling just like a skin.
When fish begin to suffocate
It's too late to use a bin.

Broken glass is dangerous
But still it lies about.
Excitement as it shatters?
Injured animals can't shout.

It isn't hard to realise
Recycling is the way.
Keep the rubbish off our streets
Or later on we'll pay.
We need to care about our world
There's no time left to wait.
Start today, we've not got long
Tomorrow is too late.

The Cambridge Introduction to French Poetry Mary Lewis Shaw, 2003-08-14 Table of contents Wordsworth's Poetry, 1815-1845 Tim Fulford, 2019-02-08 The later poetry of William Wordsworth popular in his lifetime and influential on the Victorians has with a few exceptions received little attention from contemporary literary critics In Wordsworth's Poetry 1815-1845 Tim Fulford argues that the later work reveals a mature poet far more varied and surprising than is often acknowledged Examining the most characteristic poems in their historical contexts he shows Wordsworth probing the experiences and perspectives of later life and innovating formally and stylistically He demonstrates how Wordsworth modified his writing in light of conversations with younger poets and learned to acknowledge his debt to women in ways he could not as a young man The older Wordsworth emerges in Fulford's depiction as a love poet of companionate tenderness rather than passionate lament He also appears as a political poet bitter at capitalist exploitation and at a society in which vanity is rewarded while poverty is blamed Most notably he stands out as a history poet more probing and more clear sighted than any of his time in his understanding of the responsibilities and temptations of all who try to memorialize the past
