

THE CLASSIC PARTY DRESS has short sleeves, a short (slightly above the knee) full skirt, and a Peter Pan collar. Made in a soft color (pink, pale blue, pale yellow, white), it doesn't skimp on the ruffles, bows, or nonfunctional buttons. The grown-up (or "stealth") version of the Classic Party Dress keeps the full skirt but ditches the ruffles and bows for a simpler shape in a bright, girly color.

It's obvious that a party dress is intended for parties, especially birthdays, but only grown-ups are so stunted as to think that the party comes first, then the dress. Children understand that the laws of causality don't always work in such pedestrian and mundane ways; if you're already wearing a party dress, why wouldn't a party break out? This is why some six-year-olds want to wear their party dresses every day; if you've noted the strong correlation between a particular type of garment and cake and ice cream, you'd be foolish not to work the odds. Adults think the party demands the dress; kids think the dress creates the party.

It's slightly harder (okay, nearly impossible) for adults to pull off the Classic Party Dress (weavers of Japanese Lolita fashion aside), but many of us fall prey to the same kind of pattern-seeking behavior. The luckiness of our "lucky" dress might not be measured in unexpected cake and ice cream (in fact, we probably hope it isn't), but we probably overremember happy events associated with wearing it, and just by being in a positive frame of mind, expectant of pleasure, we make those events more likely in the future.

ACCESSORIES: White lace-trimmed ankle socks and patent-leather shoes, a hair bow and sausage curls, cake. Giant lollipop allowed only during musical numbers.

RELATES: The Lolita, the Baby Doll.

WORN BY: Shirley Temple, Veronica Sah.
