of storytelling and who do so by cultivating good emotional habits A thought provoking contribution to a field that has long been dominated by an ethics of principle Medicine and the Ethics of Care will appeal to scholars and students who want to move beyond the constraints of that traditional approach Resources in Education ,1997-05 A World Torn Apart Victoria Carpenter,2007 This collection of essays derives from a conference on Violence Culture and Identity held in St Andrews in June 2003 It is a contribution to the understanding of representations of violence in Latin American narrative The collected essays are dedicated to the study of the problematic history of violence as a means of civilizing the region violence used by dictatorial regimes to eradicate the collective memory of their actions violence as a result of the history of marginalizing segments of the population sexual violence as an attempt at complete control of the victim The essays establish a clear link between historical political and literary constructs spanning the past five hundred years of Latin American history Close readings of political texts historical documents prose poetry and films employ identity theories postcolonial discourse and the principles of mimetic and sacrificial violence The volume adds to the ongoing critical investigation of the relationship between Latin American history and narrative and to the key role of representations of violence within that narrative tradition Female Performers in British and American Fiction Barbara Straumann,2018-05-22 The female performer with a public voice constitutes a remarkably vibrant theme in British and American narratives of the long nineteenth century The tension between fictional female performers and other textual voices can be seen to refigure the cultural debate over the voice of women in aesthetically complex ways By focusing on singers actresses preachers and speakers this book traces and explores an important tradition of feminine articulation Drawing on critical approaches in literary studies gender studies and philosophy the book conceptualizes voice for the discussion of narrative texts Examining voice both as a thematic concern and as an aesthetic effect the individual chapters analyse how the actual articulation by female performers correlates with their cultural visibility and agency What this study foregrounds is how women characters succeed in making themselves heard even if their voices are silenced in the end Data governance in African health research: ELSI challenges and solutions Donrich Thaldar,Simisola Oluwatoyin Akintola,Bonginkosi Shoji,2025-04-02 Data protection legislation is increasingly being enacted in African countries Additionally the African Union recently adopted the AU Data Protection Framework How are these legal and policy developments influencing established ethics notions about data governance in health research For example is broad or tiered consent to research participation sufficient or does new legislation require specific consent How do individual rights in data interact with communitarian values Should health research receive special treatment from a data protection regulatory perspective How should African countries approach AI in healthcare This research topic aims to identify and analyse ELSI challenges in contemporary data governance in African health research and to develop possible solutions for such challenges Articles in this research topic will aim to assist policy makers health researchers and ELSI practitioners in Africa to better navigate and where relevant improve data governance in African

The Making of New Zealand Cricket, 1832-1914 Greg Ryan,2004 It is generally forgotten that cricket rather than rugby union was the national game in New Zealand until the early years of the twentieth century This book shows why and how cricket developed in New Zealand and how its character changed across time Greg Ryan examines the emergence and growth of cricket in relation to diverse patterns of European settlement in New Zealand such as the systematic colonization schemes of Edward Gibbon Wakefield and the gold discoveries of the 1860s He then considers issues such as cricket and social class in the emerging cities cricket and the elite school system the function of the game in shaping relations between the New Zealand provinces cricket encounters with the Australian colonies in the context of an Australasian world A central theme is cricketing relations with England at a time when New Zealand society was becoming acutely conscious of both its own identity and its place within the British Empire This imperial relationship reveals structures ideals and objectives unique to New Zealand Articulate engaging and entertaining Ryan demonstrates convincingly how the cricketing experience of New Zealand was quite different from that of other colonies Evaluating Culture M.

Johnson,2013-06-27 From which evaluative base should we develop policies designed to promote wellbeing among different cultural groups in varying circumstances This book engages with needs and capabilities to advance normative functionalist assessment of the success with which cultural institutions promote eudaemonic wellbeing in given determinate circumstances Architecture Jonathan Hill,2014-04-04 The aim of this book is to expand the subject and matter of architecture and to explore their interdependence There are now many architectures This book acknowledges architecture far beyond the familiar boundaries of the discipline and reassesses the object at its centre the building Architectural matter is not always physical or building fabric It is whatever architecture is made of whether words bricks blood cells sounds or pixels The fifteen chapters are divided into three sections on buildings spaces and bodies which each deal with a particular understanding of architecture and architectural matter The richness and diversity of subjects and materials discussed in this book locates architecture firmly in the world as a whole not just the domain of architects In stating that architecture is far more than the work of architects this book aims not to deny the importance of architects in the production of architecture but to see their role in more balanced terms and to acknowledge other architectural producers Architecture can for example be found in the incisions of a surgeon the instructions of a choreographer or the movements of a user Architecture can be made of anything and by anyone Reflecting on the City Through Literature Daan Wesselman,2023-10-11 This book develops and demonstrates an interdisciplinary method that reads literary works as a way of thinking about the city Literary works do not only provide reflections of the city depictions of the city as an aesthetically compelling setting but the literary reflection of the city also offers a critical reflection on the city How can spatial difference be conceived in cities that are changing beyond the form of the classical modern metropolis of the early 20th century How can one think of the relation between individual urban subjects and their urban environment when neither spaces nor discourses of the city provide them with an answer to the question where they might belong How does the human body interact with its urban surroundings and how should technological mediations be thought of This book approaches these questions through analysing literary texts focusing on concepts like heterotopia non place and the posthuman This book will be of interest to interdisciplinary scholars and students of the city particularly in the fields of Urban Studies Literary Studies Geography and Architecture The Uses
