The Collector, 1884 Matthew Boulton Dr Malcolm Dick, Mr Kenneth Quickenden, Ms Sally Baggott, 2013-02-28

Matthew Boulton was a leading industrialist entrepreneur and Enlightenment figure Often overshadowed through his association with James Watt his Soho manufactories put Birmingham at the centre of what has recently been termed The Industrial Enlightenment Exploring his many activities and manufactures and the regional national and international context in which he operated this publication provides a valuable index to the current state of Boulton studies Combining original contributions from social economic and cultural historians with those of historians of science technology and art archaeologists and heritage professionals the book sheds new light on the general culture of the eighteenth century including patterns of work production and consumption of the products of art and industry The book also extends and enhances knowledge of the Enlightenment industrialization and the processes of globalization in the eighteenth century Mary

Cassatt Griselda Pollock, 2022-07-07 A close ally of Camille Pissarro Berthe Morisot and Edgar Degas Mary Cassatt was the only American painter at the heart of the Impressionist group in Paris Highly respected on both sides of the Atlantic Cassatt was a forthright advocate for womens intellectual creative and political emancipation She brought her discerning gaze and compositional inventiveness across many media to the subtle social interactions of women in public and private spaces such as at the theatre and in moments of intimacy with children where she was one of the most attentive and unsentimental analysts of the infant body and the childs emerging personality Tracing key moments in Cassatts long career art historian Griselda Pollock highlights Cassatts extensive artistic training across Europe analysing her profound study of Old Masters while revealing her intelligent understanding of both Manet and Courbet Pollock also provides close readings of Cassatts paintings and her singular vision of women in modernity Now revised with a new preface updates to the bibliography and colour illustrations throughout this book offers a rich perspective on the core concerns of a major Impressionist artist through the frames of class gender space and difference
