The Literary Filmography Leonard Mustazza,2006-05-17 From the very infancy of the film industry filmmakers have relied heavily upon literature as the foundation for their movie material Well known literary works such as Dickens s A Christmas Carol and Hawthorne s The Scarlet Letter were adapted to film in the silent era as were such books as Thomas Dixon s Jr s The Klansman basis for the film Birth of a Nation In recent years Nick Hornsby s About a Boy and each of Helen Fielding s Bridget Jones s Diary novels were the basis for popular movies bearing the same names A guide to English language works that have been adapted as theatrical and television films this volume includes books both fiction and non fiction short stories newspaper and magazine articles and poems Entries are arranged alphabetically by literary title with cross listings for films made under different titles Each entry includes the original work s title author year of first publication literary prizes and a brief plot summary Information on film adaptation s of the work including adaptation titles director screenwriter principal cast and the names of the characters they portray major awards and availability in the most common formats DVD VHS is also offered The Literary Filmography: Preface, A-L Leonard Mustazza,2006 A guide to English language works that have been adapted as theatrical and television films this volume includes books both fiction and non fiction short stories newspaper and magazine articles and poems Entries are arranged alphabetically by literary title with cross listings for films made under different titles Each entry includes the original work s title author year of first publication literary prizes and a brief plot summary Information on film adaptation s of the work including adaptation titles director screenwriter principal cast and the names of the characters they portray major awards and availability in the most common formats DVD VHS is also offered The book is published as a set of two volumes Replacement volumes can be obtained individually under ISBN 0 7864 2503 2 for Volume 1 and ISBN 0 7864 2504 0 for Volume 2 Children's Books that Nurture the Spirit Louise Margaret Granahan,2003 Children develop in so many ways physically intellectually socially and spiritually Story is just one of the ways to foster and support a child s faith development They can find role models in the positive characters in literature and develop empathy for others when they see a different point of view presented Children s Books that Nurture the Spirit is an introduction to quality children s literature for spiritual development The most current and readily available children s literature is reviewed by the author In addition Granahan suggests ways for leaders to use and extend the literature Spain, the Second World War, and the Holocaust Sara J. Brenneis,Gina Herrmann,2020-03-26 Spain the Second World War and the Holocaust is the first comprehensive historical and cultural study of Spain s unique relationship to this turbulent historical period The ABCs of Writing for Children ,2002 Visualizing the Holocaust David Bathrick,Brad Prager,Michael David Richardson,2008 Visual representations are an essential but highly contested means of understanding and remembering the Holocaust Photographs taken in the camps in early 1945 provided proof of and visceral access to the atrocities Later visual representations such as films paintings and art installations attempted to represent this extreme trauma While photographs from the camps and later aesthetic reconstructions differ in origin they share goals and have raised similar concerns the former are questioned not as to veracity but due to their potential inadequacy in portraying the magnitude of events the latter are criticized on the grounds that the mediation they entail is unacceptable Some have even questioned any attempt to represent the Holocaust as inappropriate and dangerous to historical understanding This book explores the taboos that structure the production and reception of Holocaust images and the possibilities that result from the transgression of those taboos Essays consider the uses of various visual media aesthetic styles and genres in representations of the Holocaust the uses of perpetrator photography the role of trauma in memory aesthetic problems of mimesis and memory in the work of Lanzmann Celan and others and questions about mass cultural representations of the Holocaust David Bathrick is Emeritus Professor of German at Cornell University Brad Prager is Associate Professor of German at the University of Missouri and Michael D Richardson is Associate Professor of German at Ithaca College
