Harmony in Asia and Beyond Julia Tao,Anthony B. L. Cheung,Martin Painter,Chenyang Li,2009-12-18 Harmony has become a major challenge for modern governance in the twenty first century because of the multi religious multi racial and multi ethnic character of our increasingly globalized societies Governments all over the world are facing growing pressure to integrate the many diverse elements and subcultures which make up modern pluralistic societies This book examines the idea of harmony and its place in politics and governance both in theory and practice in Asia the West and elsewhere It explores and analyses the meanings mechanisms dimensions and methodologies of harmony as a normative political ideal in both Western and Asian philosophical traditions The book argues that in Western political thought which sees politics as primarily concerned with resolving social conflicts and protecting individual rights the concept of harmony has often been neglected In contrast since earliest times harmony or he has been a profound theme in Confucian thought and current leaders of many East Asian governments and the Chinese government have explicitly declared that the realisation of a harmonious society is their aim The book also assesses how harmony is pursued jeopardized or deformed in the real world of politics based upon empirical analysis of a variety of different cultural social and political contexts including China Hong Kong Singapore Malaysia Singapore Vietnam Denmark Latin America and the Scandinavian countries It shows how harmony as an organizing concept can help to promote new thinking in governance and overcome problems of modern day governance like distrust adversarial conflicts hyper individualism coercive state intervention and free market alienation It also discusses the potential problems posed by the pursuit of harmony in particular in the grave threat of totalitarianism and considers how these risks could best be mitigated Singapore Math and Science Education Innovation Oon Seng Tan,Ee Ling

Low,Eng Guan Tay,Yaw Kai Yan,2021-08-04 This edited volume explores key areas of interests in Singapore math and science education including issues on teacher education pedagogy curriculum assessment teaching practices applied learning ecology of learning talent grooming culture of science and math vocational education and STEM It presents to policymakers and educators a clear picture of the education scene in Singapore and insights into the role of math and science education in helping the country excel beyond international studies such as PISA the pedagogical and curricula advancements in math and science learning and the research and practices that give Singaporean students the competitive edge in facing the uncertain and challenging landscape of the future Comparing High-Performing Education Systems Charlene Tan,2018-09-03 Comparing High Performing Education Systems provides original insights into the educational structures ideologies policies and practices in Singapore Shanghai and Hong Kong Taking as its basis their global reputation and consistently strong performance in formal assessments the author provides an in depth analysis and comparison of these three education systems that draws on cutting edge research Chapters explore the dominant cultural and educational norms in Singapore Shanghai and Hong Kong to give a wider picture of these high performing education systems The performance of students in international large scale assessments such as Programme for International Student Assessment PISA Trends in International Mathematics and Science Study TIMSS and Progress in International Reading Literacy Study PIRLS is considered alongside an exploration of attitudes to schooling tutoring and assessment The book shows how Singapore Shanghai and Hong Kong exemplify an East Asian Educational Model EAEM Such a model is rooted in and shaped by Confucian habitus unconscious and ingrained worldviews dispositions and habits that reflect the standards of appropriateness in a Confucian Heritage Culture aspires high performance a balance between academic excellence and holistic development and utilises educational harmonisation the art of bringing together different and contradictory means and ends to achieve desired educational outcomes Informative and thought provoking this book is a useful reference for policymakers researchers educators and general readers on high performing education systems school reforms in East Asia Confucian influences on education and cross cultural policy learning and transfer Internationalization of Teacher Education and the Nation State Rita Z. Nazeer-Ikeda, 2020-10-29 The relationship between teacher education and internationalization is often regarded as one that has just begun sparked by globalization and its knowledge economy This book questions such an assumption by arguing that although contemporary demands on teacher education have intensified the need for internationalization teacher education and internationalization have a deep and complex relationship which is context dependent and has developed differently over time This book urges its readers to question and rethink overly nationalistic approaches to teacher education It shows how the internationalization of teacher education could be used as a strategic tool to support sustainable educational development and meet labor market demands for twenty first century competencies It puts the spotlight on the imperatives for internationalizing teacher education and its present forms and considers this current phenomenon in the context of Singapore This nation state has a history of internationalization albeit with differing rationales dimensions and strategies Internationalization has been a key driver of the Singapore education system s sustained growth from its humble beginnings to its present state as one of the best performing education systems in the world This book will be of great interest to policy makers academics researchers and graduate students in the fields of international and comparative education teacher education and South East Asian studies
