Marchettini,C.A. Brebbia,R. Pulselli,S. Bastianoni,2014-09-23

Containing the proceedings of the 9th International Conference on Urban Regeneration and Sustainability this book addresses the multi disciplinary aspects of urban planning a result of the increasing size of cities the amount of resources and services required and the complexity of modern society Most of earth s population now lives in cities and the process of urbanisation still continues generating many problems deriving from the drift of the population towards them These problems can be resolved by cities becoming efficient habitats saving resources in a way that improves the quality and standard of living The process however faces a number of major challenges related to reducing pollution improving main transportation and infrastructure systems New urban solutions are required to optimise the use of space and energy resources leading to improvements in the environment i e reduction in air water and soil pollution as well as efficient ways to deal with waste generation These challenges contribute to the development of social and economic imbalances and require the development of new solutions Large cities are probably the most complex mechanisms to manage However despite such complexity they represent a fertile ground for architects engineers city planners social and political scientists and other professionals able to conceive new ideas and time them according to technological advances and human requirements The challenge of planning sustainable cities lies in considering their dynamics the exchange of energy and matter and the function and maintenance of ordered structures directly or indirectly supplied and maintained by natural systems Topics covered include Urban strategies Planning development and management Urban conservation and regeneration The community and the city Eco town planning Landscape planning and design Environmental management Sustainable energy and the city Transportation Quality of life Waterfront development Case studies Architectural issues Cultural heritage issues Intelligent environment and emerging technologies Planning for risk Disaster and emergency response Safety and security Waste management Infrastructure and society Urban metabolism State of the World 2004 Worldwatch

Institute,2014-04-08 State of the World 2004 takes a fresh look at the trends that have put the global economy on a collision course with the Earth s ecosystems This year s edition has a special focus on the theme of consumption It questions whether a less consumptive society is possible and concludes that it is essential The book explores overconsumption a by product of affluence and underconsumption linked to poverty and provides behind the scenes exposes of the devastating environmental impacts of some of our most popular products from plastic bags to paper to mobile phones Published annually in 28 languages each edition draws on the breadth of expertise of Worldwatch s award winning team of writers and researchers State of the World is relied upon by national governments UN agencies development workers and law makers for its authoritative and up to the minute analysis and information It is essential for anyone concerned with building a positive global future The Oxford Guide to Financial Modeling Thomas S. Y. Ho,Sang-bin Yi,2004 The essential premise of this book is that theory and practice are equally important in describing financial modeling In it the authors try to strike a balance in their discussions between theories that provide foundations for financial models and the institutional details that provide the context for applications of the models The book presents the financial models of stock and bond options exotic options investment grade and high yield bonds convertible bonds mortgage backed securities liabilities of financial institutions the business model and the corporate model It also describes the applications of the models to corporate finance Furthermore it relates the models to financial statements risk management for an enterprise and asset liability management with illiquid instruments The financial models are progressively presented from option pricing in the securities markets to firm valuation in corporate finance following a format to emphasize the three aspects of a model the set of assumptions the model specification and the model applications Generally financial modeling books segment the world of finance as investments financial institutions corporate finance and securities analysis and in so doing they rarely emphasize the relationships between the subjects This unique book successfully ties the thought processes and applications of the financial models together and describes them as one process that provides business solutions Created as a companion website to the book readers can visit www.thomasho.com to gain deeper understanding of the book's financial models Interested readers can build and test the models described in the book using Excel and they can submit their models to the site Readers can also use the site's forum to discuss the models and can browse server based models to gain insights into the applications of the models For those using the book in meetings or class settings the site provides Power Point descriptions of the chapters Students can use available question banks on the chapters for studying

eBook: Economics 20th Edition

MCCONNELL,2017-02-15 eBook Economics 20th Edition Visiting Grandchildren Donald Savoie,2006-03-04 During his successful campaign to become Conservative Party leader in the spring of 2004 Stephen Harper said of the Maritime provinces We will see the day when the region is not the place where you visit your grandparents but instead more often than not the place where you visit your grandchildren In Visiting Grandchildren esteemed policy analyst and scholar Donald J Savoie explores how Canadian economic policies have served to exclude the Maritime provinces from the wealth enjoyed in many other parts of the country especially southern Ontario and calls for a radical new approach in how Canadian governments determine policies that affect the different regions Savoie advocates a ratchet effect for national economic policies whereby regions take turns at high growth with the slow growth region of one period becoming the high growth region of the next with none moving from slow growth to decline He demonstrates how this pattern has been effective in countries undergoing long term regional convergence and how it would recognize that what is good for the Maritimes is good for Canada no less than what is good for Ontario is good for Canada Visiting Grandchildren looks to history accidents of geography and to the workings of national political and administrative institutions to explain the relative underdevelopment of the Maritime provinces Savoie argues that the region must strive to redefine its relationship with the national government and with other regions that it must ask fundamental questions of itself about its own responsibility for its present underdevelopment develop a cooperative mindset and embrace the market if it is to prosper in the twenty first century

Savoie's work serves as the blueprint for a new way of envisioning the Maritime region Managerial Economics K Rama Mohana, Chandra Sekhar Patro, 2023-08-08 Managerial Economics involves an analysis of the allocation of the resources available to a firm or a unit of management among the activities of that unit.
