

September 14

Then he answered and spake unto me, saying,
This is the word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts.
Zechariah 4:6 kjv

Histories of Urban Planning and Political Power Victoria

Grau,Max Welch Guerra,2024-06-10 Urban planning has always been a preeminent instrument of political power In this volume contributions from Europe and Latin America provide insight into the functions of planning under very different political and societal constellations over the last hundred years dictatorships parliamentary democracies and illiberalism capitalism and state socialism state interventionism and neoliberalism societies in times of peace and societies marked by colonial civil world or cold wars The dictatorships of the 1920s and 1930s made extensive use of the potential of planning for economic growth for brutal repression but also for the integration of certain population groups and as an effective means of propaganda The legacy of these dictatorships still characterizes many European cities today and confronts planning with complex tasks Dictatorial state socialism planned to establish a new social order with a particular technocratic rationality which did not however cancel completely the tendential autonomy of the professional planning sphere Parliamentary democracies and illiberal regimes have developed specific new practices of using planning to rebuild cities in the interests of neoliberal economic growth and populist legitimization of power Histories of Urban Planning and Political Power takes the next steps in significantly expanding our understanding of planning and politics The book will be of interest to students and scholars of urbanism urban town planning spatial planning spatial politics urban development urban policies and planning history and European history of the 20th century The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
