14 Paper 3 Economics Zimsec:

Hyperinflation in Zimbabwe Tara McIndoe-Calder, Tara Bedi, Rogelio Mercado, 2019-11-16 This book investigates the hyperinflation in Zimbabwe in the 2000s The authors present a full description of the Zimbabwean hyperinflation in its relevant economic historical and political context They address parallels with other hyperinflations discuss the economics of hyperinflation in general and of the Zimbabwean hyperinflation in particular and provide a money demand estimation using a new dataset The study concludes with several policy lessons This book will be of interest to researchers in both social sciences and the humanities as well as practitioners and policy makers in development economics and those in the banking industry

Uneven Zimbabwe Patrick Bond, 1998 Uneven Zimbabwe examines the influence of domestic and international financial markets and financiers in uneven development in Zimbabwe using and contributing to the tools of radical political economy Theoretically Bond begins with criticism of the classical Marxist concepts of finance capital for focusing on institutional characteristics and failing to grasp underlying dynamics Instead as economic crisis tendencies emerge the power of finance periodically intensifies temporarily displacing crisis through time and space and across geographical scales But the limits of the financial solution become evident when paper assets delink from the productive assets they are meant to represent as well as in the role that finance plays in amplifying uneven development across different economic sectors spaces and scales

Politics and Economics of Africa Frank H. Columbus, 2001 A continent of vast diversity stretching from the deserts of the north through the equatorial tropics into the more temperate south Africa brims with challenges and issues This book collects a series of papers examining a number of these topics and how they impact African nations the United States and the global community The analyses also present possible solutions to some of the continent's most vexing problems as many of its nations chart a course of political and economic development

Studies in the Economic History of Southern Africa Z.A. Konczacki, Jane L. Parpart, Timothy M. Shaw, 2016-04-15 First Published in 1990 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Zimbabwe Richard Hosier, 1986 Food Strategies and Market Liberalization in Africa Shahla Shapouri, 1992 Land Reform Under Structural Adjustment in Zimbabwe Sam Moyo, 2000 This study represents a first systematic effort to document Zimbabwe's new land uses during the years of economic crisis the role of the state in promoting them the differentiation associated with them not only between black and white farmers but also among them and the implications of all these for the political economy of the Zimbabwean land question The fact that some of the new land uses avoid redistribution of clearly under utilised large scale commercial farms suggests that the Zimbabwean land question will remain a live political issue for a long time

Monetary Economics and Policy Pierpaolo Benigno, 2025-01-07 A unified framework for understanding monetary policy including recent unprecedented interventions by central banks Over the past two decades monetary policy has been deployed in unprecedented ways as central banks attempted to mitigate the adverse consequences of the 2007 2008 financial crisis the COVID 19 global lockdown and recent inflationary surges In Monetary Economics and Policy Pierpaolo Benigno offers a new way to understand the potency and effectiveness of monetary policy presenting a unified modeling framework to analyze policy challenges posed by both paper and digital currency systems He investigates current theoretical and policy controversies drawing connections with historical themes in monetary economics Benigno examines how central banks control the value of their currency amid competition from cryptocurrencies and private money like securities discusses the desirability of inflation targeting for macroeconomic stabilization and explores theoretical grounds for the unconventional monetary policies seen in the recent period of zero nominal interest rates including forward guidance quantitative and credit easing and helicopter money He accompanies his analysis with an innovative visual representation of the New Keynesian model and inflation targeting policies Benigno's novel framework also allows the study of monetary policy normalization through quantitative tightening toward what has become the new normal He discusses the optimal provision of liquidity and the different roles of the government and financial intermediaries Finally he recounts historical controversies regarding the inflation unemployment trade off to understand the 2020s inflationary surge and delves into the causes and dynamics of hyperinflations tracing them to the subtle ambiguous linkages between monetary and fiscal policy and weak balance sheet conditions for the central bank

The Oxfam Poverty Report Kevin Watkins,1995 Fifty years ago the United Nations Charter proclaimed universal rights to shared prosperity peace and security How far has that vision of world citizenship been realised Despite advances in human welfare and technology there is today a growing polarisation between rich and poor One in four of the world's people live in absolute poverty unable to meet their basic needs armed conflict is affecting millions of people and the global environment is under threat Yet there is a failure of political will to address the silent emergency of poverty The Oxfam Poverty Report draws on Oxfam's experience of working in over 70 countries to examine the causes of poverty and conflict It identifies the structural forces which deny people their basic rights and gives a wide range of examples of the ways in which men and women are bringing about positive change at every level from the household to the international arena Oxfam believes that it is time to renew the UN vision of universal basic rights The Report concludes by proposing policy and institutional reforms which would transform international institutions and trading relations and calls for a new commitment to work together to eradicate poverty and bring sustainable peace and security for all the world's people
