Home Literacy Environment and Literacy Acquisition George Georgiou, Tomohiro Inoue, 2025-06-14 if support Lists This book provides a comprehensive and up to date overview of the literature on home literacy environment and its association with literacy skills in different languages and contexts Home literacy environment HLE an umbrella term that encompasses various activities parents engage in with their children has been studied extensively by psychologists linguists behavioral geneticists and educators However no systematic effort has been put into synthesizing this growing body of research in a coherent manner making it difficult for researchers and various stakeholders to understand the key points of past research while keeping up with the latest research findings To address this need the first part of the book provides an overview of the current literature on conceptualizations of HLE covering prominent theoretical models the measurement of HLE the potential extension and generalizability of models across contexts the intersections between home learning environment in literacy numeracy and other domains and the genetic and environmental etiology of literacy development The second section of the book hosts a wide variety of studies from all over the world conducted in English speaking countries UK U S Canada Finland Greece Turkey China Japan the Philippines and other Southeast Asian countries and Chile and other Latin American and Caribbean countries while it includes chapters with both typically developing children and children at familial risk of dyslexia The third section of this book offers a comprehensive collection of chapters on intervention studies examining the role of family literacy programs dialogic reading and onscreen digital access Together the 22 chapters of this book elucidate the complex nature of HLE and provide future research directions and instructional recommendations on how parents and policymakers can improve home literacy practices around the world As such this book is valuable for researchers educators and other professionals and the readership ranges from graduate students and scholars to parents and policymakers Impacting Society Positively Through Technology in Accounting and Business Processes Tankiso Moloi, 2025-05-09 This conference volume discusses the findings of the iCAB 2024 conference that took place in Sun City South Africa on June 27 28 2024 The University of Johannesburg hosted the iCAB 2024 conference with the aim to bring together researchers from different Accounting and Business Management fields to share ideas and discuss how new disruptive technological developments are impacting the field of accounting The conference was sponsored by the Association of International Certified Professional Accountants AICPA CIMA Story in Children's Lives: Contributions of

the Narrative Mode to Early Childhood Development, Literacy, and Learning Kelli Jo Kerry-Moran, Juli-Anna Aerila, 2019-09-27 This book is based on the power of stories to support children in all areas of their lives It examines the role narratives can play in encouraging growth in contexts and domains such as personal and family identity creative movement memory and self concept social relationships or developing a sense of humor Each chapter describes innovative and research based applications of narratives such as movement stories visual narratives to develop historical thinking multimodal storytelling bibliotherapy mathematics stories family stories and social narratives The chapters elaborate on the strength of narratives in supporting the whole child in diverse contexts from young children on the autism spectrum improving their social skills at school to four and five year olds developing historical thinking to children who are refugees or asylum seekers dealing with uncertainty and loss Written by accomplished teachers researchers specialists teaching artists and teacher educators from several countries and backgrounds the book fills a gap in the literature on narratives this work delves into the topic of narratives in young children s lives with a breadth of topics and depth of study not found elsewhere Collectively the insights of the contributors build a convincing case for emphasizing story across the various disciplines and developmental domains of the early childhood years The writing style is scholarly yet accessible Authors used a wide array of visual material to make their points clearer and show the reader what meaningful uses of story look like Mary Renck Jalongo Journal and Book Series Editor Springer Indiana PA USA The Education of d/Deaf and Hard of Hearing Children Peter V.

Paul, 2020-02-12 A significant number of d/Deaf and hard of hearing d/Dhh children and adolescents experience challenges in acquiring a functional level of English language and literacy skills in the United States and elsewhere To provide an understanding of this issue this book explores the theoretical underpinnings and synthesizes major research findings It also covers critical controversial areas such as the use of assistive hearing devices language and literacy assessments and inclusion Although the targeted population is children and adolescents who are d/Dhh contributors found it necessary to apply our understanding of the development of English in other populations of struggling readers and writers such as children with language or literacy disabilities and those for whom English is not the home language Collectively this information should assist scholars in conducting further research and enable educators to develop general instructional guidelines and strategies to improve the language and literacy levels of d/Dhh students It is clear that there is not a one size fits all concept but rather research and instruction should be differentiated to meet the needs of d/Dhh students It is our hope that this book stimulates further theorizing and research and most importantly offers evidence and reason based practices for improving language and literacy abilities of d/Dhh students Interdisciplinary Research and Innovation in
