Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1978 Postcolonial Challenges to Theory and Practice in ELT and TESOL Hamza R'boul,2023-08-11 Drawing on the underrepresentation of the Global South in global knowledge production with a focus on the existing inequalities the book highlights the importance of postcolonial narratives within Global Southern epistemologies in English language teaching ELT and Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages TESOL Chapters consider the epistemological landscapes of these fields their dedication to English teaching and English related topics and the intersection of the coloniality of language and the supremacy of English worldwide The book explores the type of discussion that is needed to advance a more nuanced understanding of sociopolitical circumstances and how they shape our academic practices and theorizations of ELT and TESOL. In doing so, chapters examine the current geopolitics of knowledge that are found in journal publishing, citing how it favours the Global North and further exploring ways of decolonizing language practices, teaching approaches and research cultures. Calling for greater visibility and recognition of Southern ways of knowing within ELT and TESOL practice and research, the book will be an essential reading for scholars, researchers and students of TESOL, ELT, Applied Linguistics and multilingualism.
