Mosaic Barbara Roche Rico,Sandra Mano,1995 Along with the writings Rico and Mano provide a historical social cultural and literary context for the readings Informative chapter introductions the inclusion of key laws and other contextual documents and the chapters focus on the experiences of a particular ethnic group all contribute to a deeper reading of the selections and a richer understanding of America s pluralistic society Cover Black Holes / J. Hillis Miller; or,

Boustrophedonic Reading Joseph Hillis Miller,Manuel Asensi,1999 J Hillis Miller s text deals mainly with Anthony Trollope s Ayala s angel and Marcel Proust s A la recherche du temps perdu The J. Hillis Miller Reader Joseph Hillis Miller,Julian Wolfreys,2005 This anthology exhibits the diversity inventiveness and intellectual energy of the writings of J Hillis Miller the most significant North American literary critic of the twentieth century From the 1950s onward Miller has made invaluable contributions to our understanding of the practice and theory of literary criticism the ethics and responsibilities of teaching and reading and the role of literature in the modern world He has also shown successive generations of scholars and students the necessity of comprehending the relationship between philosophy and literature Divided into six sections the volume provides more than twenty significant extracts from Miller s works In addition there is a new interview with Miller as well as a series of specially commissioned critical responses to Miller s work by a number of the leading figures in literary and cultural studies today Following a comprehensive critical introduction by the editor each section has a brief introduction directing the reader toward pertinent themes There is also a comprehensive bibliography and a chronology of Miller s professional life and activities This reader the first of Miller s work in English provides an indispensable overview and introduction to one of the most original critical voices to have emerged since the inception of the teaching of English and American literature in universities in the English speaking world Carson McCullers in the Twenty-First Century

Alison Graham-Bertolini,Casey Kayser,2016-10-26 The contributors to this volume use diverse critical techniques to identify how Carson McCullers writing engages with and critiques modern social structures and how her work resonates with a twenty first century audience The collection includes chapters about McCullers fiction autobiographical writing and dramatic works and is groundbreaking because it includes the first detailed scholarly examination of new archival material donated to Columbus State University after the 2013 death of Dr Mary Mercer McCullers psychiatrist and friend including transcripts of the psychiatric sessions that took place between McCullers and Mercer in 1958 Further the collection covers the scope of McCullers canon of work such as The Heart Is a Lonely Hunter 1940 The Member of the Wedding 1946 and Ballad of the Sad Caf 1943 through lenses that are of growing interest in contemporary literary studies including comparative transatlantic readings queer theory disability studies and critical animal theory among others

Reading and Teaching the Postcolonial Greg Dimitriadis, Cameron McCarthy, 2001 In addition to providing an accessible introduction to postcolonial theory the authors explore the enormous potential which postcolonial art offers educators a wealth of material to draw upon for any rethinking of the school curriculum Some of the artists discussed in this groundbreaking volume include African American critic and writer James Baldwin Trinidadian intellectual and activist C L R James Novelist Wilson Harris of Guyana African American novelist and Nobel laureate Toni Morrison The painter Arnaldo Roche Rabell of Puerto Rico The Australian artist Gordon Bennett The Haitian Puerto Rican American artist Jean Michel Basquiat Plus a look at popular world musics from around the globe A seminal cutting edge work These insights will radically transform the pedagogical practices that now define schooling and education on a global landscape Norman K Denzin University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign A landmark volume for undergraduate and graduate students alike William F Pinar Louisiana State University If ever a book registered important advances in our thinking about the relationship among culture power and education this is it Michael W Apple University of Wisconsin Madison

Worlds of Difference Eleanor Palo Stoller, Rose Campbell Gibson, 2000 This collection of readings presents a variety of perspectives on ageing from different communities across the United States Native American Puerto Rican African American the elderly homeless white working class gay and Mexican amongst many others The readings cover topics such as life course social and psychological contexts of ageing paid and unpaid activity the American family and health

A Multicultural Prism J. Q. Adams, Janice R. Welsch, 1994 Acts of Narrative Carol Jacobs, Henry Sussman, 2003 This outstanding collection brings together essays that reflect on the nature of narrative literary criticism and history from a variety of theoretical and disciplinary perspectives ranging from deconstruction psychoanalysis and trauma theory to narratology technology economics and aesthetics Acts of Narrative includes responses from renowned scholars across a wide range of disciplines philosopher Jacques Derrida the literary critic J Hillis Miller W J T Mitchell well known for his reflections on the visual world and Cathy Caruth one of the founders of the field of trauma theory These essays are brilliant in their readings of other texts but are also striking in the manner in which each becomes itself a narrative performance Moreover what starts out as an exercise in theorizing and reading moves more often than not into a meditation on social and political issues crucial for our own sense of ourselves

Race and Arab Americans Before and After 9/11 Amaney Jamal, Nadine Naber, 2008-02-27 Bringing the rich terrain of Arab American histories to bear on conceptualizations of race in the United States this groundbreaking volume fills a critical gap in the field of U S racial and ethnic studies The articles collected here highlight emergent discourses on the distinct ways that race matters to the study of Arab American histories and experiences and asks essential questions What is the relationship between U S imperialism in Arab homelands and anti Arab racism in the United States In what ways have the axes of nation religion class and gender intersected with Arab American racial formations What is the significance of whiteness studies to Arab American studies Transcending multiculturalist discourses that have simply added on the category Arab American to the landscape of U S racial and ethnic studies after the attacks of September 11 2001 this volume locates September 11 as a turning point rather than as a beginning in Arab Americans

Developing Multicultural Educators Jana Noel, 2017-12-21 Written in a narrative style with complex concepts and theories explained in everyday language and full of practical current examples this concise text asks educators to examine their identities It demonstrates how the social construction of identities has shaped individuals perceptions judgments and understanding of the world Noel integrates the right mix of personal experiences of multicultural educators literature from that field and information from the psychological philosophical and sociological foundations of education to help educators plan for diversity in their teaching Alongside up to date statistics and examples are timely discussions of immigration community involvement the achievement gap sex and gender hate crimes and bullying issues that touch multicultural educators on a daily basis Advantageous pedagogical tools group and individual activities guided discussion questions case studies and end of chapter reflective writings help readers gain a clear vision of how to be an effective teacher in today s diverse communities

Landmark Essays on Rhetorics of Difference Damian Baca, Ellen Cushman, Jonathan Osborne, 2024-11-01 Landmark Essays on Rhetorics of Difference challenges the Eurocentric perspective from which the field of rhetoric is traditionally viewed Taking a step beyond the creation of alternative rhetorics that maintain the centrality of the European and Greco Roman tradition this volume argues on behalf of pluriversal rhetorics that coexist as equally important on their own terms A timely addition to the respected Landmark Essays series it will be invaluable to students of history of rhetoric literacy composition and writing studies

Criticism in the Borderlands Héctor Calderón, José David Saldívar, 1991-05-30 This pathbreaking anthology of Chicano literary criticism with essays on a remarkable range of texts both old and new draws on diverse perspectives in contemporary literary and cultural studies from ethnographic to postmodernist from Marxist to feminist from cultural materialist to new historicist The editors have organized essays around four board themes the situation of Chicano literary studies within American literary history and debates about the canon representations of the Chicana o subject genre ideology and history and the aesthetics of Chicano literature The volume as a whole aims at generating new ways of understanding what counts as culture and theory and who counts as a theorist A selected and annotated bibliography of contemporary Chicano literary criticism is also included By recovering neglected authors and texts and introducing readers to an emergent Chicano canon by introducing new perspectives on American literary history ethnicity gender culture and the literary process itself Criticism in the Borderlands is an agenda setting collection that moves beyond previous scholarship to open up the field of Chicano literary studies and to define anew what is American literature Contributors Norma Alarcón Hector Calderón Angie Chabram Barbara Harlow Rolando Hinojosa Luis Leal José E. Limón Terese McKenna Elizabeth J. Ordóñez Genaro Padilla Alvina E. Quintana Renato Rosaldo José David Saldívar Sonia Saldívar Hull Rosaura Sánchez Roberto Trujillo Exploring the Dynamics of Second Language Writing Barbara Kroll, 2003-04-14 The book addresses issues in the field of teaching academic writing to non native speakers This book provides a series of discussions about multiple aspects of second language writing presenting chapters that collectively address a range of issues that are important to new teachers at the post secondary level The 13 chapters provide scholarly visions insight and interpretation oriented toward explaining the field of teaching academic writing to non native speakers The book is designed to provide foundational content knowledge in this area with each chapter authored by recognized experts in the field In addition to helping train new teachers the book will serve as an updated reference book for practicing teachers and scholars to consult Multicultural Education James A. Banks, Cherry A. McGee Banks, 2010 Multicultural Education is a reader which helps educators understand the concepts paradigms and explanations needed to become more effective practitioners in culturally racially and language diverse classrooms Inhabited by Stories Nancy A. Barta-Smith, Danette DiMarco, 2012-11-30 Intertextuality has signaled change appropriation adaptation and derivation It has focused readers on irresolvable questions of influence and origination progressive or regressive movement across continents periods and media Inhabited by Stories Critical Essays on Tales Retold takes a different approach What would a model of literary study look like that steps out of time's river and embraces not only the presence and proximity of the world to the senses but also of the past and the future to the present here and now When stories inhabit us imagination and memory extend our ability to see and feel Phenomenological experience is lived not just thought Such a perspective suggests that the past and future inhabit the present increase the depth of sensory perception itself and enrich the range of our affective and ethical responses Grounded in the lived experience of reading this perspective offers an alternative to an idea of intertextuality as simply following lines of influence and appropriation It focuses on the expansion of experience created by telling and retelling stories Ironically for literary theorists and critics perhaps the highest form of both praise and critique is a tale retold since such retellings attest to literature's instructive power and its perennial regeneration Cormac McCarthy James D. Lilley, 2014-02-15 Critics have been quick to address Cormac McCarthy's indebtedness to southern literature Christianity and existential thought but the essays in this collection are among the first to tackle such issues as gender and race in McCarthy's work Turning Points Ansgar Nünning, Kai Marcel Sicks, 2012-10-30 At times of crisis and revolution such as ours diagnoses of crucial junctures and ruptures turning points in the continuous flow of history are more prevalent than ever Analysing literary cinematic and other narratives the volume seeks to understand the meanings conveyed by different concepts of turning points the alternative concepts to which they are opposed when used to explain historical change and those contexts in which they are unmasked as false and over simplifying constructions Literature and film in particular stress the importance of turning points as a sensemaking device as part of a character's or a community's cultural memory while at the same time unfolding the constructive and hence relative character of turning points. Offering complex reflections on the notion of turning points, literary and filmic narratives are thus of particular interest to the present volume.
