The New Partridge Dictionary of Slang and Unconventional English Tom Dalzell, Terry Victor, 2015-06-26 Booklist Top of the List Reference Source The heir and successor to Eric Partridge s brilliant magnum opus The Dictionary of Slang and Unconventional English this two volume New Partridge Dictionary of Slang and Unconventional English is the definitive record of post WWII slang Containing over 60 000 entries this new edition of the authoritative work on slang details the slang and unconventional English of the English speaking world since 1945 and through the first decade of the new millennium with the same thorough intense and lively scholarship that characterized Partridge's own work. Unique, exciting, and at times hilariously shocking, key features include unprecedented coverage of World English with equal prominence given to American and British English slang and entries included from Australia, New Zealand, Canada, India, South Africa, Ireland, and the Caribbean; emphasis on post-World War II slang and unconventional English; published sources given for each entry, often including an early or significant example of the term's use in print; hundreds of thousands of citations from popular literature, newspapers, magazines, movies, and songs illustrating usage of the headwords; dating information for each headword in the tradition of Partridge commentary on the term's origins and meaning. New to this edition: A new preface noting slang trends of the last five years; Over 1,000 new entries from the US, UK, and Australia; New terms from the language of social networking. Many entries now revised to include new dating, new citations from written sources, and new glosses. The New Partridge Dictionary of Slang and Unconventional English is a spectacular resource infused with humour and learning; it's rude, it's delightful, and it's a prize for anyone with a love of language.

At Home and Abroad La Vinia Delois Jennings, 2010-07-27. Featuring new critical essays by scholars from Europe, South America, and the United States, At Home and Abroad presents a wide-ranging look at how whiteness, defined in terms of race or ethnicity, forms a category toward which people strive in order to gain power and privilege. Collectively, these pieces treat global spaces whose nation-building and identity formation have turned on biological and genealogical exigencies to whiten themselves. Drawing upon racialized national practices implemented prior to and during the twentieth century, each of the essays enlists literature or performance to reflect the sociopolitical imperatives that secured whiteness in the respective locations they study. They range from examinations of whiteness in the literature of Appalachia and contemporary Argentinean poetry to an analysis of performances memorializing the colonial experience in Italy and an exploration into the white rap music of Eminem and contemporary multiracial passing. As the contributors show, literary and performance representations have the power to chronicle histories that reflect the behaviors and lived realities of our selves. Whether whiteness, in addition to its physical manifestation, presents itself as identity, symbol, racism, culture, social formation, political imposition, legal imposition, or pathology, it has been outed into the visible even in national spaces where the term whiteness has yet to be translated and entered into the official lexicon. The ten essays collected here provide powerful insights into where and how the race for biological and genealogical whiteness persists in various geopolitical realms and the ways in which Nordic whites, as well as ethnic whites and nonwhites, resecure its ascendance. La Vinia Delois Jennings is professor of English at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville. Her recent critical study, Toni Morrison and the Idea of Africa, won the 2008 Toni Morrison Society Prize for Best Single Authored Book on the Nobel laureate and Pulitzer Prize-winning author.
