What Counts as Literacy? Margaret A. Gallego, Sandra Hollingsworth, 2000 This critical exploration of the theories and purposes of literacy challenges current assumptions about the discourse of schooling Authors Margaret Anne Gallego and Sandra Hollingsworth along with eminent scholars delve into the lives and literacies that have traditionally been

excluded from public classrooms and focus on the disenfranchisement that results from such politics They propose an alternative set of literacies helping non mainstream students to learn the dominant language of power while preserving their community and personal identities Through socio political analyses the contributors argue persuasively for expanding what counts as literacy to include visual media and technological literacy multiple sign systems for special education students community based literacy and personal literacies This practical and fresh collection is an essential resource for educators theorists and researchers who wish to expand the existing definitions of literacy to include multiple perspectives Billy Budd, Sailor and Selected Tales Herman Melville, 1998 Truth uncompromisingly told will always have its ragged edges So wrote Melville of Billy Budd Sailor among the greatest of his works and in its richness and ambiguity among the most problematic As the critic E L Grant Watson writes In this short history of the impressment and hanging of a handsome sailor boy are to be discovered problems as profound as those which puzzle us in the pages of the Gospels Outwardly a compelling narrative of events aboard a British man of war during the turmoil of the Napoleonic Wars Billy Budd Sailor is a nautical recasting of the Fall a parable of good and evil a meditation on justice and political governance and a searching portrait of three extraordinary men The passion it has aroused in its readers over the years is a measure of how deeply it addresses some of the fundamental questions of experience that every age must reexamine for itself The selection in this volume represents the best of Melville's shorter fiction and uses the most authoritative texts The eight shorter tales included here were composed during Melville's years as a magazine writer in the mid 1850's and establish him along with Hawthorne and Poe as the greatest American story writer of his age Several of the tales Bartleby the Scrivener Benito Cereno The Encantadas The Paradise of Bachelors and the Tartarus of Maids are acknowledged masterpieces of their genres All show Melville a master of irony point of view and tone whose fables ripple out in nearly endless circles of meaning Red Book of Animal Stories Andrew Lang, 2012-08-28 This collection of children's animal stories is a classic of juvenile literature and still delights children today just as in the past Not only do we find fiery dragons here but dangerous dogs and demons bears bats boars and baboons greyhounds and griffins cows and crocodiles hyenas and hippopotamuses snakes saints and sheep monkeys mermaids and mammoths lions and llamas and dozens of others from the wide and wonderful animal world What a menagerie to excite the senses and lure the adventurous The Author Lang a noted historian was also an incurable romantic hence his great success in writing children's books These stories first published in 1899 were selected and edited by Lang The ones about Tom the Bear are from the French work on natural history by Alexander Dumas Most of the tales in the chapter Thieving Dogs and Horses were published by Sir Walter Scott Sixty eight excellent and evocative illustrations enhance the stories and the reader's enjoyment of them Animal Narratology Joela Jacobs, 2020-12-15 Animal Narratology interrogates what it means to narrate to speak speak for on behalf of and to voice or represent life beyond the human which is in itself as different as insects bears and dogs are from each other and yet more as individual as a single mouse horse or puma The varied contributions to this interdisciplinary Special Issue highlight assumptions about the human perception of attitude toward and responsibility for the animals that are read and written about thus demonstrating that just as the animal does not exist neither does the human In their zoopoetic focus the analyses are aware that animal narratology ultimately always contains an approximation of an animal perspective in human terms and terminology yet they make clear that what matters is how the animal is approximated and that there is an effort to approach and encounter the non human in the first place Many of the analyses come to the conclusion that literary animals give readers the opportunity to expand their own points of view both on themselves and others by adopting another s perspective to the degree that such an endeavor is possible Ultimately the contributions call for a recognition of the many spaces moments and modes in which human lives are entangled with those of animals one of which is located within the creative bounds of storytelling
