All Amazed John O'Brian, Naomi Sawada, Scott Watson, 2002 All Amazed celebrates the life and work of the late Roy Kiyooka 1926 1994 one of Canada's first multi disciplinary artists whose work transcended categorical and cultural exclusivity At various periods of his life Kiyooka was a painter sculptor teacher poet musician filmmaker and photographer When Kiyooka arrived in Vancouver in 1959 he was already one of Canada's most respected abstract painters His modernist stance at the time inspired a generation of Vancouver painters to reach beyond regionalism In the sixties and seventies Kiyooka began to write and publish poetry and produce photographic works the best known of these StoneDGloves 1969 1970 is both a poetic and photographic project In all of his projects he saw the position of the artist as being in opposition to the institutions of art The shape and scope of Kiyooka's work continues to be revealed seven years after his death Based on a major multidisciplinary conference at the University of British Columbia organized by such luminaries as Michael Ondaatje Daphne Marlatt Scott Watson and John O Brian All Amazed pays tribute to a remarkable artist and poet who continues to amaze and astound us Includes essays by Roy Miki Henry Tsang Sheryl Conkelton and Scott Toguri McFarlane as well as numerous black and white images of Kiyooka's artwork Amazing Art Adventures Yolanda Zappaterra, 2021-06-15 Amazing Art Adventures gathers together hundreds of exciting unexpected and memorable art experiences from around the world

volume of Creepy is packed with stories usually up to eight short stories were featured in every issue running the gamut of gruesome subject matter from reimagined horror classics such as The Cask of Amontillado to spectacularly mindtwisting shorts such as The Thing in the Pit or the macabre maritime yarn Drink Deep This volume collects Creepy 610 Since the stock is much finer than the authentic newsprint visually these pages are better than the originals with moodily dark blacks that punctuate the shock endings Publishers Weekly Discourses of Empire and Commonwealth Sandra Robinson, Alastair Niven, 2016-11-01 In Discourses of Empire and Commonwealth a range of prominent writers and critics reflect on the legacy of imperialism and the role of writers in forging a new more cosmopolitan identity The contributors writing about a wide range of countries affirm the freedom of the human spirit even within unjust or oppressive social systems They show the power of words to illuminate injustices and unite different peoples Salman Rushdie famously declared that Commonwealth Literature has had its day this book provides a vital antidote to this idea Editors Sandra Robinson and Alastair Niven have put together this mixture of personal reflections critical overviews historical re evaluations and creative works to illustrate the vitality of this genre Milton and the Reformation Aesthetics of the Passion Erin Henriksen, 2009-11-23

Scholarship on Milton's view of God the Father and the Son has focused on the author's theological beliefs For Milton these are equally artistic questions and to address them this study considers the precedents in Christian art that provide models for portraying the divine within a reformed context Milton's revision of the passion tradition in his short poems of 1645 and his later epic poems substitutes a living obedient and subservient Son in place of late medieval representations of the crucifixion His alternative passion unfolds through a poetic vocabulary of fragmentation omission and restoration drawing on iconoclasm as an artistic strategy This study addresses the long standing question about Milton's avoidance of the crucifixion and contributes to the broader study of his reformed poetics The Logic of Intersubjectivity Darren M. Slade, 2020-08-27 To survey harsh criticisms against Brian Douglas McLaren 1956 readers gain the inaccurate impression that he is a heretical relativist who denies objective truth and logic While McLaren's inflammatory and provocative writing style is partly to blame this study also suspects that his critics base much of their analyses on only small portions of his overall corpus The result becomes a caricature of McLaren's actual philosophy of religion What is argued in this book is that McLaren's philosophy of religion suggests a faith based intersubjective relationship with the divine ought to result in an existential appropriation of Christ's religious ethical teachings When subjectively internalized this appropriation will lead to the assimilation of Jesus kingdom priorities thereby transforming the believer's identity into one that actualizes Jesus kingdom ideals The hope of this book is that by tracing McLaren's philosophy of Christian religion future researchers will not only be able to comprehend and perhaps empathize with McLaren's line of reasoning but they will also possess a more nuanced discernment of where they agree and disagree with his overall rationale Art of Dance K.A.
