Spaces in Late Antiquity Juliette Day,Raimo Hakola,Maijastina Kahlos,Ulla Tervahauta,2016-05-26 Places and spaces are key factors in how individuals and groups construct their identities Identity theories have emphasised that the construction of an identity does not follow abstract and universal processes but is also deeply rooted in specific historical cultural social and material environments The essays in this volume explore how various groups in Late Antiquity rooted their identity in special places that were imbued with meanings derived from history and tradition In Part I essays explore the tension between the Classical heritage in public especially urban spaces in the form of ancient artwork and civic celebrations and the Church s appropriation of that space through doctrinal disputes and rival public performances Parts II and III investigate how particular locations expressed and formed the theological and social identities of Christian and Jewish groups

by bringing together fresh insights from the archaeological and textual evidence Together the essays here demonstrate how the use and interpretation of shared spaces contributed to the self identity of specific groups in Late Antiquity and in so doing issued challenges and caused conflict with other social and religious groups Controlling Contested Places Christine Shepardson, 2019-05-14 From constructing new buildings to describing rival controlled areas as morally and physically dangerous leaders in late antiquity fundamentally shaped their physical environment and thus the events that unfolded within it Controlling Contested Places maps the city of Antioch Antakya Turkey through the topographically sensitive vocabulary of cultural geography demonstrating the critical role played by physical and rhetorical spatial contests during the tumultuous fourth century Paying close attention to the manipulation of physical places Christine Shepardson exposes some of the powerful forces that structured the development of religious orthodoxy and orthopraxy in the late Roman Empire Theological claims and political support were not the only significant factors in determining which Christian communities gained authority around the Empire Rather Antioch's urban and rural places far from being an inert backdrop against which events transpired were ever shifting sites of and tools for the negotiation of power authority and religious identity This book traces the ways in which leaders like John Chrysostom Theodoret and Libanius encouraged their audiences to modify their daily behaviors and transform their interpretation of the world and landscape around them Shepardson argues that examples from Antioch were echoed around the Mediterranean world and similar types of physical and rhetorical manipulations continue to shape the politics of identity and perceptions of religious orthodoxy to this day Paradiso Lorenzo Castore, 2005 For Lorenzo Castore in his dynamic photographs of Cuba and Mexico colour is everything He uses it in extraordinary ways conveying a rich sense of place and atmosphere The resultant images are revealing and powerful portraits of his subjects cafés bars streets and the everyday This is the winning project of the 2005 Leica European Publishers Award whose previous winners include Simon Norfolk Bruce Gilden Dario Mittidieri and Jeff Mermelstein A worthy and fascinating addition to the list of previous winners Paradiso is constantly surprising and striking Explorations in the Second Christian Century Judith M. Lieu, 2024-11-11 As allegiance to Jesus Christ spread across the Roman Empire in the second century writings practices and ideas erupted in a creative maelstrom Many of the patterns of practice and belief that later become normative emerged in the midst of debate and argument with neighbours who shared or who rejected that allegiance Authoritative texts principles of argument attitudes to received authority the demands of allegiance in the face of opposition identifying who belonged and who did not all demanded attention These essays explore those divergent voices and the no less diverse and lively debates they have inspired in recent scholarship Understanding Texts in Early Judaism József Zsengellér, 2022-03-07 This volume remembers Gza Xeravits a well known scholar of deuterocanonical and Qumran literature The volume is divided into four sections according to his scholarly work and interest Contributions in the first part deal with Old Testament and related issues Thomas Hiecke Stefan Beyerle and Matthew Goff The second section is about the

Dead Sea Scrolls John J Collins John Kampen Peter Porzig Eibert Tigchelaar Balázs Tamási and Rika Eszter The largest part is the fourth on deuterocanonical Beate Ego Lucas Brum Teixeira Fancis Macatangay Tobias Nicklas Maria Brutti Calduch Benages Nuria Pancratius Beentjes Benjamin Wright Otto Mulder Angelo Passaro Friedrich Reiterer Severino Bussino Jeremy Corley and JiSeong Kwong The third section deals with cognate literature József Zsengeller and Karin Schepflin The last section about the Ancient Synagogue has the paper of Anders Kloostergaard Petersen Some hot topics are discussed for example the Two spirits in Qumran the categorization of the Dead Sea Scrolls the authorship and anthropology of Ben Sira and the angelology of Vitae Prophetarum Venice and the Radical Reformation Riccarda Suitner, 2023-12-04 The Republic of Venice was the only Catholic territory in which an Anabaptist community formed in the 16th century The history of Venetian Anabaptism hitherto little known in Reformation Studies is the focus of this book Using a large quantity of archival material and rare printed sources Riccarda Suitner reconstructs the lives of the Republic's Anabaptists and the inquisitorial repression they suffered and analyses the doctrinal specificities of the Radical Reformation in this area This story represents a fundamental stage in the relations between German central European and Italian culture in the early modern period Events in Venice are presented within a broader comparative framework paying particular attention to the German states Switzerland the Polish Lithuanian Commonwealth Transylvania Moravia Tyrol and the Kingdom of Naples It will emerge that its Venetian history cannot be ignored if we are to gain a true understanding of the European Reformation Dura bellezza Marco Delogu, 2004 Queer Readings of the Centurion at Capernaum Christopher B. Zeichmann, 2022-10-28 The first ever monograph on the history of queer biblical interpretation of a controversial biblical passage Since the 1950s homoerotic readings of the pericope in which Jesus heals a Roman centurion's slave have been built upon three of the account's features the specific Greek word pais which can refer to youth slave or the junior partner in a sexual relationship between two men Luke's characterization of the young man as dear entimos to the centurion and commonplace homoeroticism in the Roman army Rather than affirming or denying the historical reality of a sexual relationship between the centurion and the young man Christopher B Zeichmann instead traces the shifting patterns of queer readings of the text and the influences of the sexual political and theological discourses of late twentieth and early twenty first century Europe the United States and Australia Readers will see how distinct political contexts have led interpreters to find very different meanings about the sexual subtexts of this story The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Christian Martyrdom Paul Middleton, 2020-04-06 A unique wide ranging volume exploring the historical religious cultural political and social aspects of Christian martyrdom Although a well studied and researched topic in early Christianity martyrdom had become a relatively neglected subject of scholarship by the latter half of the 20th century However in the years following the attack on the Twin Towers on September 11 2001 the study of martyrdom has experienced a remarkable resurgence Heightened cultural religious and political debates about Islamic martyrdom have in a large part prompted increased interest in the role of martyrdom in the Christian
