The Anglican Prayer Life David F. Sokol, 2001 In our busy every day lives we must change our focus from the worldly mind to the silent contemplation of the spirit from the many to the One In prayer we seek to know the reality and presence of God It is not a cold calculating process but what the Greek Fathers called theoria a passionate contemplative insight involving communion and sharing Anglicanism in the Jewish tradition describes three levels of existence as one body mind and spirit We must discipline ourselves to assure the transition from the body and mind to the spirit To help inform our prayers and leave room for personal expression The Anglican Prayer Life emphasizes both the structured prayers in the Book of Common Prayer and personal prayers informed by Scripture Whether used as a companion in individual prayer with a prayer partner anamchara or in a formal prayer group this little book will help you enter a relationship with Jesus Christ and provide both solace in your personal needs and the courage to intercede on behalf of others

The Inner Kingdom Kallistos (Bishop of Diokleia), 2000

This work is a revised and expanded version of a book that has appeared in several languages. It focuses on themes central to Eastern Christian worship and spiritual life. The first three chapters provide insights on death, bereavement, and resurrection in Christ and repentance. Chapters four and five invite the reader into the world of desert ascetics and hesychast monks. Combining scholarly rigor with practical counsels on prayer, Bishop Ware makes the wealth of this tradition accessible to today's Christians. The next three chapters concern personal vocation, martyrdom, spiritual fatherhood, and the strange path of the fool for Christ's sake. There follows brief essays on the theology of time and the spiritual purposes of higher education. The final chapter is a challenging discussion of Origen and St. Gregory of Nyssa. Isaac the Syrian and Silouan the Athonite, and in conversation with them, asks: dare we hope for the salvation of all?

Prayers and Blessings for an Inclusive Church
Steven Shakespeare, 2025-03-31

This unique and important liturgical resource reflects the broadening expressions of diversity and inclusivity across the churches worldwide. It is the most comprehensive of its kind and draws on feminist, LGBTQ, postmodern, disability, trauma, black, and eco-theologies to create prayers with poetic immediacy and richness. Designed to complement authorised liturgies, it includes a collect for every Sunday in the 3-year cycle as well as forms of confession, eucharistic prayers, post-communion prayers, and final blessings for each season and principal holy day. Over sixty new prayers cover the occasional offices: baptism, first communion, marriage, heterosexual and same-sex funerals, and services focused on creation, peace, and justice. A theological rationale for writing and using inclusive prayers is also included.
