Teacher Agency and Policy Response in English Language Teaching Patrick C. L. Ng, Esther F. Boucher-Yip, 2016-08-05 The role of English in the global arena has prompted official language in education policy makers to adopt language education policies to enable its citizens to be proficient in English and to access knowledge Local educational contexts in different countries have implemented English education in their own ways with different pedagogical goals motivations features and pedagogies While much of the research cited in English language planning policy has focused on macro level language policy and planning there is an increasing interest in micro planning in particular teacher agency in policy response Individual teacher agency is a multifaceted amalgam not only of teachers individual histories professional training personal values and instructional beliefs but also of how these interact with local interpretations and appropriations of policy Teacher Agency and Policy Response in English Language Teaching examines the agency of the teacher in negotiating educational reforms and policy changes at the local and national levels Chapters in the book include English language teaching in China teacher agency in response to curricular innovations Incorporating academic skills into EFL curriculum teacher agency in response to global mobility challenge Teacher agency the native nonnative dichotomy and English Classes in English in Japanese high Schools Teacher designed high stakes English language testing washback and impact This book will appeal to researcher across all sectors of education in particular key stakeholders in curriculum and language planning Those interested in the latest development of English language teaching will also find this book a valuable resource

Christian Companion , 1900 Global

Perspectives on Language Education Policies JoAnn (Jodi) Crandall, Kathleen M. Bailey, 2018-02-01 Presenting research on language policy and planning with a special focus on educational contexts in which English plays a role this book brings readers up to date on the latest developments in research theory and practice in a rapidly changing field The diversity of authors research settings and related topics offers a sample of empirical studies across multiple language teaching and university contexts The fifth volume in the Global Research on Teaching and Learning English series it features access to both new and previously unpublished research in chapters written by TIRF Doctoral Dissertation Grant awardees and invited chapters by respected scholars in the field Constructing a Chinese School of International Relations Yongjin Zhang, Teng-Chi Chang, 2016-06-10 This edited volume offers arguably the first systemic and critical assessment of the debates about and contestations to the construction of a putative Chinese School of IR as sociological realities in the context of China's rapid rise to a global power status Contributors to this volume scrutinize a particular approach to worlding beyond the West as a conscious effort to produce alternative knowledge in an increasingly globalized discipline of IR Collectively they grapple with the pitfalls and implications of such intellectual creativity drawing upon local traditions and concerns knowledge claims and indigenous sources for the global production of knowledge of IR They also consider critically how such assertions of Chinese voices and articulation of their ambition for theoretical innovation from the disciplinary margins contribute to the emergence of a Global IR as a truly inclusive discipline that recognizes its multiple and diverse foundations Reflecting the varied perspectives of both the active participants in the Chinese School of IR debates within China and the observers and critics outside China this work will be of great interest to students and scholars of IR theory Non Western IR and Chinese Studies Implementing Educational Reform Colleen McLaughlin, Alan Ruby, 2021-11-25 A collection and analysis of eight education reform case studies capturing successes failures and choices faced in implementation China and International Relations Zheng Yongnian, 2010-09-13 Despite Beijing's repeated assurance that China's rise will be peaceful the United States Japan and the European Union as well as many of China's Asian neighbours feel uneasy about the rise of China Although China's rise could be seen as inevitable it remains uncertain as to how a politically and economically powerful China will behave and how it will conduct its relations with the outside world One major problem with understanding China's international relations is that western concepts of international relations only partially explain China's approach China's own flourishing indigenous community of international relations scholars have borrowed many concepts from the west but their application has not been entirely successful so the work of conceptualizing and theorizing China's approach to international relations remains incomplete Written by some of the foremost scholars in the field of China studies this book focuses on the work of Wang Gungwu one of the most influential scholars writing on international relations including topics such as empire nation state nationalism state ideology and the Chinese view of world order Besides honouring Wang Gungwu as a great scholar the book explores how China can be integrated more fully into international relations studies and theories discusses the extent to which existing IR theory succeeds or fails to explain Chinese IR behaviour and demonstrates how the study of Chinese experiences can enrich the IR field Adversative and Concessive Conjunctions in EFL Writing Yan Zhang, 2020-10-01 This book explores the usage patterns of a group of adversative and concessive conjunctions in English texts written by Chinese EFL learners and their native speaker counterparts Focusing on probability profiles and systemic potentials the study encompasses three stages and combines the strengths of two research methods the corpus based approach and text based analysis to examine the conjunctions under the theoretical framework of systemic functional linguistics and rhetorical structure theory Starting with an overview of seventeen conjunctions across two corpora in terms of overall frequency positional distribution and distribution of semantic categories the book then offers a more detailed discussion of three individual conjunctions highlighting the interconnections between 1 syntactic positions and co occurrence patterns and 2 semantic relations encoded by these conjunctions Lastly it presents a case study of one full length text taken from the learner corpus applying rhetorical structure theory to provide new insights into the relevance of adversative and concessive relations to text structure This comprehensive in depth analysis is both diagnostic and pedagogically informative Resources in Education ,1999 ABC English-Chinese Chinese-English Dictionary John DeFrancis,Yanyin Zhang,2010-11-30 The ABC English Chinese Chinese English Dictionary ECCE is a student oriented bilingual dictionary that organizes Chinese words by their pronunciation as written in pinyin This innovative straightforward alphabetical organization allows the user to find most words more quickly and easily
