GCSE Literature Boost: A Christmas Carol Haili Hughes, 2024-07-05 GCSE Literature Boost A Christmas Carol uses academic criticism and theory to relight your literary passion for this classic text and put a newfound excitement in your pedagogy Beginning with a whistlestop tour of literary theory and criticism from 400BC to the late 20th century Hughes explains how you can introduce your GCSE English students to themes most often reserved for undergraduate courses improving their understanding of the text and broadening their knowledge of the subject as a whole Written in easily digestible chunks each chapter considers a main theme or section of Charles Dickens A Christmas Carol through different critical lenses summarising the relevant academic theories and shows how you can transfer this knowledge to the classroom through practical teaching ideas Features include Case studies showing how English teachers have used academic theory in practical ways Ideas for teaching linked to GCSE assessment objectives at the end of each chapter Six key points at the end of each chapter that highlight the key takeaways from that chapter Real examples of student work which can be used as models and exemplars This is essential reading for all secondary English teachers looking to create a climate of high expectations and improve their students knowledge and understanding of the big ideas in literature Key Maths GCSE, 2002-06 Written to support and enhance assessment alongside the pupil texts these resources offer a range of material for the AQA specification They provide test questions for each chapter together with detailed mark schemes to make assessment easy Two versions of each question are provided one allows pupils to write their answers in the spaces provided and the other requires pupils to have separate writing paper Questions can be grouped according to needs Master grids are provided to cut and paste tests together in a consistent format to use the resource in any order Chapter tests can be grouped to form a module test after chapters End of chapter examinations can also be produced in this way A free non calculator supplement organised by unit chapter is also included in this resource Bringing the English Curriculum to Life David Didau, 2024-04-12 Bringing the English Curriculum to Life builds on David Didau s groundbreaking book Making Meaning in English by showing how the principles of the original book can be applied in schools and classrooms Drawing together experiences of designing teaching supporting and assessing English across the schools within Ormiston Academies Trust OAT this book demonstrates what an ambitious coherently sequenced broad and balanced English curriculum with successful adaption for students with SEND can look like in practice Designed around the explicit teaching of the powerful conceptual knowledge students need to master the discipline the book offers a fully resourced English curriculum packed with teaching suggestions and examples of high quality practice Covering intent implementation and assessment and outlining in detail what is included in each module for KS3 and 4 the curriculum can be adopted in its entirety but is also flexible enough for departments to take modules and slot them into their own curriculum Providing an inspiring model for teaching English that enables all students to succeed this is an essential resource for all English teachers and school leaders responsible for curriculum development Teaching Hacks: Fixing Everyday Classroom Issues with Metacognition Nathan Burns,2024-05-31 This book is a practical guide offering new ways to fix many typical day to day issues in schools using metacognition to offer effective and efficient solutions Discover new ways to enhance your own teaching with metacognition and how to apply it to many common aspects of teaching and learning Every chapter is written by a different education expert and takes a solution focused approach exploring metacognitive strategies and ideas for the classroom Key topics include Smart revision strategies Nuanced and effective feedback The power of modelling answers Student motivation and resilience Supporting struggling writers Integrating metacognition across the curriculum And much more A Practical Guide to Teaching English in the Secondary School Annabel Watson,Ruth G Newman,2021-11-29 A Practical Guide to Teaching English in the Secondary School offers straightforward advice inspiration and a wide range of tried and tested approaches to help you find success in the secondary English classroom Covering all aspects of English teaching it is designed for you to dip in and out of and enable you to focus on specific areas of teaching your programme or pupils learning Fully updated to reflect what student and early career teachers see and experience when they enter the classroom the second edition supports trainee and practicing teachers to teach in imaginative and creative ways to promote learning in English Packed with ideas resources practical teaching activities and underpinned by the latest research into how children learn the book examines the core areas of reading writing and spoken English including Plays poetry non fiction myths and legends drama and Shakespeare Developing writing Creative grammar Talk and classroom dialogue Media and digital writing English across the curriculum Well being through writing Literature and language post 16 Including tools to support critical reflection A Practical Guide to Teaching English in the Secondary School is an essential companion for all training and newly qualified English teachers Radical Tenderness Andrea Brady,2024-05-09 Radical Tenderness argues for the importance of poetry in negotiating political and social catastrophes through a focus on the unusual intimacies of committed writing How do poets negotiate between the personal and the public the bedroom and the street the family and class or communal ties How does contemporary lyric with its emphasis on the feelings and perceptions of the individual subject speak to moments of shared crisis What can poetry tell us about how care shapes our experiences of history How do the intimacies found in protest on strike in riots and in spaces of oppression transform individual lives and political movements Through a series of focussed readings of four twenty first century poets Caleb Femi Bhanu Kapil Juliana Spahr and Anne Boyer Radical Tenderness reflects the perspectives provided by intimate poetries on the shared political emergencies of poverty war ecological catastrophe racism and illness 2012 GCSE English results Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Education Committee,2013-06-11 The 2012 GCSE English results prompted significant controversy which ultimately resulted in an application for judicial review This report sets out the background to these events and identifies lessons to be learned The problems with GCSE English can be traced back to the 2007 09 development phase of the qualification in particular the turbulence which resulted from the shift away from a mostly linear to a modular system combined with a high proportion of controlled assessment and generous marking tolerances Exam board experts raised concerns at the time but these were not acted upon by the regulator the then interim Ofqual Further difficulties arose because of pressures from the school accountability system The problems experienced with GCSE English in 2012 highlighted serious weaknesses in the moderation of speaking and listening with consequences for grade awarding The current status of Ofqual as an independent regulator accountable to Parliament is the right one However the Coalition Government is bringing in wholesale changes to GCSEs and A levels to a tight timetable and at the same time Ofqual must have systems in place The Committee is also concerned that there is a rush towards separate exam systems for England Wales and Northern Ireland without careful reflection on what might be lost or consensus that this is the right thing to do

AS Critical Thinking for AQA Oliver McAdoo, 2014-01-14 AS Critical Thinking for AQA is the definitive textbook for students of the current AQA Advanced Subsidiary Level syllabus. Structured very closely around the AQA specification, it covers the two units of the AS level in an exceptionally clear and student-friendly style. The chapters are helpfully subdivided into short, digestible passages and include intended learning objectives at the beginning of each chapter, student exercises at the end of each section, with a stretching activity for more advanced learners, exam-oriented questions, key point summaries at the end of each section, and cross-references. In line with the AQA specification, there is a heavy emphasis on more imaginative forms of source material, for example music, film, artwork, historical documents, adverts, moral dilemmas, and scientific debates, as a means of illustrating key points. A great deal of emphasis is also placed on live or real arguments, taking topical examples from the world of science, politics, entertainment, and sport. The book is accompanied by a companion website with extensive resources for both instructors and students.
