

- Your teacher will give you plenty of time to prepare for the task. You can use any resources you like, but do keep a record of them (including websites). You must include a list of these at the end of your task.
- You can work in a small group to research and prepare your material but your final work must be all your own.
- Choose different versions of the play. You can refer to the different versions when you write your response and you will be given credit for this.
- You can refer to local notes when you are writing your response, but these must be brief. You must hand in your notes at the end of each session and on completion of the task. You can also use a copy of the play without any annotations.
- You can highlight your response or use a word processor. You are allowed a dictionary and thesaurus or grammar and spelling's programs. You are NOT allowed to use the internet, email, dictionaries, etc. when writing your response.
- You can do the Controlled Assessment Task in January or June. When you have finished, your teacher will mark your work and then send a sample from your school to AQA for its checklist.

Examiner's tip

The Controlled Assessment Task is worth 10 per cent of your final English Literature mark – so it's worth doing it well!

How to write a good answer

1. Select what you write about carefully. It is better to write a lot about a little, if you write on one scene in Shakespeare and one character in a novel or a single poem or on two characters, one from a Shakespeare play and one from a novel.
2. Use short, relevant quotations. Every time you include a quotation, consider the language the writer has used and the probable effect on the audience.
3. Name what the story. You and your teacher already know it. If you find yourself doing this, stop and refer to the question.
4. Check your spelling, in particular writers' and characters' names.
5. Always remember that Macbeth, Lady Macbeth and the other characters in the play are not real. The text writes about them as if they are. They have been created by Shakespeare. It's the important person to consider.

Here are extracts from responses written by two students. Both are writing about the dialogue between Macbeth and Lady Macbeth in Act 1 Scene 7.

Examiner's comment

In this scene Lady Macbeth makes sure that her husband will be happy what she wants her to do. Macbeth wants to stop the murder and says 'We will proceed no further' He tells her wife that King Duncan has become her and he wants to stop the war experience Lady Macbeth is being willing of it. She's only after one thing and that's to be Queen. She tells that a reward and compares that to a hell that says that hell isn't worth to get the power with the crown. But Macbeth wants to be King but Macbeth wants to be getting happiness by becoming King. Macbeth explains that he is a good man and will not be for anything but he is a good man and will not be for anything. For Lady Macbeth thinks that she is being happier. 'You'll not kill that'. At the end of the scene Macbeth has been persuaded to carry on with the plan. The audience is not waiting for the murder to be committed.

Examiner's comments

- The student has a considerable range of Shakespeare's often and uses of language in the poem.
- Not all points are fully explained and backed up. For example, Lady Macbeth's accusation of cowardice.
- There is a general understanding of how Lady Macbeth influences her husband although the effect on Macbeth and the audience are not considered in much detail.
- This is a Grade C response. To improve, this student needs to develop ideas in more detail and to link these details to a more thoughtful consideration of the scene.
