with scintillating wit and waspish observation on their encounters with many of the great figures of the day including such as Napoleon Wellington Talleyrand Castlereagh Chateaubriand Dr Johnson David Garrick Madame de Stael and both the French and British Royal families Although the two women lived for significant periods in each other's country mainly in Paris and in London and inhabited the same social circles surprisingly they never met in person Yet they both encountered the same people and commented on the same events Through the observations of these immensely well connected and brilliant writers Brian Unwin provides a fresh and fascinating insight into some of the principal events and persons of one of the most seminal and turbulent periods of modern European history The Oxford History of Popular Print Culture Gary Kelly, Joad Raymond, Christine Bold, 2011 Planned nine volume series devoted to the exploration of popular print culture in English from the beginning of the sixteenth century to the present
