Mothers and Daughters in Arab Women's Literature Dalya Abudi, 2010-11-11 This study explores the mother daughter relationship as the most fundamental and most intimate female relationship and as the cornerstone of Arab family life Drawing on autobiographical and semifictional works by women writers from across the Arab world the study offers a first hand account of how Arab women view and experience this primary bond The author uses both early and contemporary writings of Arab women to illuminate the traditional and evolving nature of mother daughter relationships in Arab families and how these family dynamics reflect and influence modern Arab life The compelling narratives demystify the institutions of family and motherhood and show the potential of mothers and daughters to transform the patriarchal family and thus the fabric of Arab society A groundbreaking work that fills a void in cross cultural studies it is of interest to scholars and students of Middle Eastern studies women s studies and family studies first interpretive reading by a woman a reading which validates the female voice in the Qu ran and brings it out of the shadows Muslim progressives have long argued that it is not the religion but patriarchal interpretation and implementation of the Qu ran that have kept women oppressed For many the way to reform is the reexamination and reinterpretation of religious texts Qu ran and Woman contributes a gender inclusive reading to one of the most fundamental disciplines in Islamic thought Qu ranic exegesis Wadud breaks down specific texts and key words which have been used to limit women s public and private role even to justify violence toward Muslim women revealing that their original meaning and context defy such interpretations What her analysis clarifies is the lack of gender bias precedence or prejudice in the essential language of the Qur an Despite much Qu ranic evidence about the significance of women gender reform in Muslim society has been stubbornly resisted Wadud s reading of the Qu ran confirms women s equality and constitutes legitimate grounds for contesting the unequal treatment that women have experienced historically and continue to experience legally in Muslim communities The Qu ran does not prescribe one timeless and unchanging social structure for men and women Wadud argues lucidly affirming that the Qu ran holds greater possibilities for guiding human society to a more fulfilling and productive mutual collaboration between men and women than as yet attained by Muslims or non Muslims Global Healing Karen Laura Thornber,2020-03-02 Read an interview with Karen Thornber In Global Healing Literature Advocacy Care Karen Laura Thornber analyzes how narratives from diverse communities globally engage with a broad variety of diseases and other serious health conditions and advocate for empathic compassionate and respectful care that facilitates healing and enables wellbeing The three parts of this book discuss writings from Africa the Americas Asia Europe the Middle East and Oceania that implore societies to shatter the devastating social stigmas which prevent billions from accessing effective care to increase the availability of quality person focused healthcare and to prioritize partnerships that facilitate healing and enable wellbeing for both patients and loved ones Thornber s Global Healing remaps the contours of comparative literature world literature the medical humanities and the health humanities Watch a video interview with Thornber by the Mahindra Humanities Center part of their conversations on Covid 19 Read an interview with Thornber on Brill s Humanities Matter blog Arab Dress, A Short History Norman Stillman,2022-06-08 This richly illustrated volume is a historical and ethnographic study of one important aspect of Arab and Islamic material culture clothing While in part descriptive its principal focus is on the evolution and transformations of modes of dress over the past 1400 years throughout the Middle East North Africa and for the Middle Ages Islamic Spain Arab clothing is treated as part of an Islamic vestimentary system and is discussed within the context of the social religious esthetic and political trends of each age In addition to the five historical chapters three chapters are devoted to major themes of Arab costume history the dress code for non Muslims the important socio economic and political institution of luxury fabrics and garments of honor and the most well known and frequently misunderstood institution of veiling The Weans at Rowallan Kathleen Fitzpatrick,2022-08-01 Kathleen
