Interdenominational Faith Missions in Africa Fiedler, Klaus, 2018-03-13 It was not the European and American churches which evangelised Africa but the mission societies The missions from the Great Awakening such as the London

Missionary Society and Church Missionary Society or the Holy Ghost Fathers and the White Fathers which started the process of Sub Saharan Africa becoming a Christian continent are well known and documented Less known and less documented are the interdenominational faith missions which began in 1873 with the aim of visiting the still unreached areas of Africa North Africa the Sudan Belt and the Congo Basin Missions such as the Africa Inland Mission or Sudan Interior Mission gave birth to some of the big churches like ECWA in Nigeria and Africa Inland Church in Kenya It is the aim of this book to describe faith missions and their theology and to present an overview of the early development of faith missions insofar as they touched Africa The Story of Faith Missions Klaus Fiedler,1994 The Keswick Movement Charles Edwin Jones,2007 This volume introduces researchers to the leaders ideas and institutions of the Keswick Movement a strand of holiness teaching that was embraced by many evangelicals who came from the more Calvinistic wing of Protestantism especially Anglicans Baptists Congregationalists and Presbyterians The Keswick Movement is the most difficult of the three main holiness traditions to delineate Unlike the Wesleyan Holiness and Holiness Pentecostal traditions the Keswick Movement has not gone through a definitive period of careful theological refining and institutional boundary setting
