Write On: David Bender, 2013-08-06. David has a sanctified imagination; he likes to think outside the box and help others see things in a new light. Who else but David would write about God's Addiction, God's Divorce, the Family of Judas Iscariot, Sues Christians, God's Tattoo, Forgiving God, Anti Devil, The Pagan Evangelist, Imagine Gethsemane, With A Dysfunctional God, When God Dreams About This World, and more. David also writes about Bible experiences placed in modern settings. Bible incidents reported through the eyes of the media and his saddest writing. David Bender is a misplaced Cornhusker living near Corinth in northeast Mississippi. He has two grown married daughters and four grandchildren. He is presently the benevolence director at Church of the Crossroads, Corinth, MS, assisting people in need of food or utility assistance. David has a B.A. in theology and an M.B.A. from the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga. He has years of experience supervising in manufacturing environments and helping employees develop into the workers they are capable of being. He has succeeded in spite of a troubled childhood and setbacks in life. David started his readneck writing a couple of decades ago and hasn't tired of it yet.

Discourses of Ageing and Gender Clare Anderson, 2018-08-25. This book presents in depth investigation of the language used about women and ageing in public discourse and compares this with the language used by women to express their personal lived experience of ageing. It takes a linguistic approach to identify how messages contained in public discourse influence how individual women evaluate their own ageing and particularly their ageing appearance. It begins by establishing the wider cultural context that produces prevailing attitudes to women before turning to an analysis of representations of the ageing female body in beauty and cosmetic advertising and the lifestyle media. The focus then moves to a detailed investigation of women's own perceptions of the process of ageing and of their ageing appearance as revealed through their personal narratives. The final chapters challenge dominant attitudes to women and ageing by presenting two case studies of women who for different reasons and in different ways refuse to conform to cultural expectations. This work provides a platform for further academic research in the fields of linguistics, gerontology, gender, and media studies, as well as offering meaningful applications in the wider domains of business and advertising.

A Stream of Dreams Leon Nacson, 2003-12-31. This book by dream expert Leon Nacson is more than just a dream dictionary or a thesaurus. It is a definitive dream decoder. Finally, you can simply and effortlessly discover the true meaning behind the symbols in your dreams. Unlike traditional dream dictionaries, this book presents the meanings behind modern-day symbols such as mobile phones, boom boxes, and DVD players. For example, spiders are becoming more common in dreams because we spend more time on the World Wide Web these days. Traditional dictionaries might simply describe spiders as symbols of danger and entrapment. Ultimately, this book will become the benchmark for accurate dream interpretation.
