the subject English Pedagogy Didactics Literature Studies grade 1 7 Friedrich Alexander University Erlangen Nuremberg Lehrstuhl Fremdsprachendidaktik course Seminar Young Adult Fiction language English abstract Teaching English as a foreign language means a great challenge which would certainly be answered by all English teachers in the affirmative Today every school in Germany offers English as school subject even the primary schools Consequently it must be put great emphasis on teaching it accurately by taking into consideration any aspect of English language acquisition when learning it for example the acquisition of a distinctive vocabulary the ability to use grammar rules correctly the ability to spell correctly the ability to understand what is been said when native speakers talk in English which we call listening comprehension Another very important part of learning English as a foreign language is undisputedly reading comprehension The ability to read out correctly to understand what is been read and to be able to work with a text effectively is not only a competence that should be concentrated on in the foreign language but also in the mother tongue The PISA Study is a perfect proof of this which will be mentioned later on In this paper I will try to accentuate the importance and significance of reading in the English class In order to illustrate this I will introduce the novel A Thousand Splendid Suns by Khaled Hosseini an American author and doctor with Afghan origins and use it for the elaboration of the importance of reading activities in the English class Initially I will focus on the didactic analysis which includes the reference to the syllabus The syllabus is of course the signpost in terms of guidelines when planning the lessons choosing age appropriate media and methods What role does reading play in this context What is said in the syllabus when it comes to reading The next Female Oppression in "The Bell Jar" and "A Thousand Splendid Suns" Florian Kollmeier, 2013-06-03 Pre University Paper from the year 2013 in the subject Literature Comparative Literature grade A language English abstract The aim of this essay is to discuss the notion that the representation of female oppression in literature transcends cultural differences by looking at The Bell Jar and A Thousand Splendid Suns In order to discuss this notion I researched background information about the representation of female oppression in literature and the different cultures represented in the texts The essay focuses on female sexuality and the position of women in relationships as indicators for oppression in society In order to further compare the differences in the nature of the oppression of women other works and literary critics have been considered Furthermore the use of literary techniques such as stylistic devices and symbolism has been examined to trace connections between the works The conclusion that was found was that both The Bell Jar and A Thousand Splendid Suns comment on female oppression in their cultures The different ways of discussing and presenting the oppression were found to be due to the different contexts of
