Aarhus Convention Implementation Guide:

The Aarhus Convention, 2014 United Nations publication sales no E 13 II E 3 Page 4 of cover The Aarhus Convention, 2000 Manual on Compliance with and Enforcement of Multilateral Environmental Agreements Carl Bruch, United Nations Environment Programme, 2006 This Manual expands upon Guidelines on Compliance with and Enforcement of Multilateral Environmental Agreements MEAs Many States participated in the development and negotiation of the Guidelines which were adopted by the UNEP Governing Council in 2002 While this Manual is not a negotiated document it also is the result of a collaborative process involving a wide range of numerous individuals around the world These people assisted in drafting case studies and other contributions reviewing the text and suggesting substantive and formatting changes Research Handbook on EU Environmental Law Marjan Peeters, Mariolina Eliantonio, 2020-06-26 This comprehensive Research Handbook discusses how the EU has used its regulatory power to steer towards environmentally friendly behaviour delving into the deep concerns related to the compliance with and enforcement of EU environmental law It also highlights the important role of civil society's use of environmental procedural rights and characterizes how the CJEU case law has contributed to the effective implementation of EU environmental legislation The Aarhus Convention United Nations, United Nations. Economic Commission for Europe, Regional Environmental Center for Central and Eastern Europe, 2013 Research Handbook on International Environmental Law Malgosia Fitzmaurice, David M. Ong, Panos Merkouris, 2010 an impressive volume and the editors have put together a high quality collection Research Handbook on International Environmental Law ought to be an invaluable reference source for both teachers and students of international environmental law in the years to come Web Journal of Current Legal Issues This wide ranging and comprehensive Handbook examines recent developments in international environmental law IEL and the crossover effects of this expansion on other areas of international law such as trade law and the law of the sea The expert contributors offer analyses of foundational issues in IEL such as responsibility for environmental damage sustainable development and the precautionary principle alongside studies in topical subject areas including marine protection and the law of international watercourses This Research Handbook offers an in depth analysis of IEL both as a field of law in its own right and as part of the wider system of international law It gives a comprehensive view of IEL in all its forms and complexity With thorough examination of specific environmental regimes and compliance mechanisms this Handbook will be an indispensable resource for legal scholars students and practitioners alike Sustainability through Participation? Birgit Peters, Eva Julia Lohse, 2023-07-03 Can and should participation be a means of achieving sustainability The concepts of sustainability and participation are both in vogue and many international supranational and national legal texts and standards refer to these two concepts However there are still several unanswered questions that invite legal inquiry which sustainability Which kinds of participation Participation by whom How are the two concepts of sustainability and participation effectively interlinked in legal provisions

This book approaches the interconnection between sustainability and participation inductively and precisely in areas of law which are commonly associated with sustainability and sustainable development national European and international environmental and economic law Shaping Internet Governance: Regulatory Challenges Rolf H. Weber, 2010-03-10

The information society is a key issue in everyday life and a phenomenon encompassing social cultural economic and legal facets Currently an information society's legal framework is gradually crystallizing under the newly introduced term of Internet governance During the last few years intensive discussions about the contents of Internet governance have addressed manifold aspects of a possible regulatory regime In light of the general comprehension that an international treaty structure is missing and that self regulation as a normative model does not suffice in all respects new architectural and constitutional theories have been developed furthermore the international body of the Internet Governance Forum IGF came to life Notwithstanding the available literature on IGF however a thorough and systematic study shedding light on the main topics of Internet governance such as legitimacy transparency accountability and participation and on the key regulatory issues for example critical Internet resources access protection of civil liberties human rights realization of security safety and privacy standards as well as the overcoming of the digital divide from a legal perspective is not yet at hand The present publication aims at discussing these legal challenges This book has benefited from many inputs and encouragements from colleagues that I am deeply grateful for In particular I am indebted to the very meaningful discussions and valuable support in the preparation of the publication by my search assistants lic iur Mirin a Grosz and lic iur Romana Weber to lic iur

Multilateral Compliance Mechanisms in EU Environmental Law Birgit Hollaus, 2023-07-01 Prompted by recent events in the EU's international environmental cooperation this thought provoking book explores the establishment and use of multilateral environmental compliance mechanisms as part of the EU's external environmental action Expanding upon current discussions in external relations law this timely book uses a doctrinal approach to analyse EU engagement with this key instrument of treaty based international environmental governance The Availability of Spatial and Environmental Data in the European Union Katleen Janssen, 2010-01-01 Because the original and essential value of spatial data data that refer to specific geographical locations or areas lies in environmental decision making such data mostly originate in the public sector and are made available to people
