

APPLICATION PACKAGE AARP BOARD OF DIRECTORS CLASS OF 2014

CANDIDATE CRITERIA

1. Commitment to AARP's Goals: Applicants must be regular members of AARP or NRTA and committed to AARP's mission and goals. They also should be aware of AARP's rich history of service through volunteerism, partnerships and teamwork. These principles are outlined in AARP's Strategic Plan (www.aarp.org/boardapplication) and are implemented nationally and internationally through a broad array of advocacy work, education, consumer activities, and services and benefits to its over 38 million members and all persons 50+.
2. Governance and Leadership Skills and Abilities: Applicants should have extensive high-level decision-making and leadership experience on relevant non-profit or for-profit governing boards. Candidates also should have skills in policy development, setting strategic direction, monitoring organizational effectiveness, overseeing a budget of upwards of a billion dollars, and determining critical legislative and/or other programmatic policies.
3. Knowledge and Experience: Applicants should have a blend of knowledge and experience to complement the current Board in such activities as public policy, membership development and benefits, business and finance, social service, marketing, new communications technology and volunteerism.
4. Ability to Represent AARP to the Public: Applicants must have demonstrated ability to be good communicators and spokespersons in order to represent AARP's positions and policies with the membership, volunteer corps, the media, professional audiences, lawmakers and government officials.
5. Time Commitment: Applicants should be aware that Board members are expected to travel and participate in Board meetings, committee meetings and other events. As a working "mission-driven" Board, members can expect to be busy at least 35 days per year, not including travel and preparation time. While this is an unpaid position, all travel and subsistence expenses related to AARP activities will be reimbursed by the Association.
