Top Cats Tom Jones,2020-05-15 Top Cats Stockton California experienced a high voltage jolt of enthusiasm during the 1960s when a young basketball coach named Dick Edwards brought a city together Hired by the University of the Pacific to coach its team Edwards had an ability to go outside the campus gates and capture the support of the city of Stockton and the outlying community He built a rabid fan base that became honorary Pacific alumni and they all turned an old opera house in downtown Stockton into a capitol of basketball The enthusiasm of the city helped Edwards develop a nationally ranked program that the University of the Pacific the city of Stockton the county of San Joaquin and the core of California s great Central Valley would grow to give unconditional support and interest Read how a fiery coach and a small group of dedicated assistants used a hardscrabble approach with a bunch of driven athletes to make Stockton and the University of the Pacific shine

Overcoming Adversity: The 2010 NBA All-Stars Tex Greene,2023-11-09 Why are these grown men getting paid millions of dollars to play a child s game Inevitably if you ve been around the game of basketball long enough you ve heard some cynical adult ask this question It seems fair getting paid millions to play basketball every night in front of adoring fans does sound like one of the easiest gigs in the world But there s a lot more to it than that No one has an easy journey to reap the rewards waiting for them at the highest level of basketball Only 3 percent of high school athletes earn scholarships to play in college and only 0 03 percent turn pro Of those 0 03 percent there are only so many who have successful careers make the millions players dream of and don t go broke almost immediately after retiring There s plenty of elite hoopers but to make it to the highest level of basketball you have to be the best in the world One thing all the elite players have in common are insane work ethics and sometimes some luck in genetics Inside this book you ll find stories of the relentless work and hours that these stars have put in when all the lights are shut off no one s watching and it s just them and the basketball Because when basketball is someone s only ticket out of a rough life gang wars drugs and violence you won t believe how good at the game they ll become
