Gentleborne Lantern Hamza Abushalha, 2025-08-10 Yousef was born under a quiet light the night his mother died leaving him in the arms of a father who vowed grief would not be the only language spoken in their home Growing up with Down syndrome Yousef builds tiny cities of bottle caps and carries a hand stitched cloth for courage while navigating schoolrooms where patience is rare and a household where kindness and silence wrestle for space When the town announces Voices Week Yousef dares to step into the light of a stage A song that begins softly grows into something larger pulling his father closer softening his stepmother and catching the attention of a community radio host From the classroom to the red ON AIR sign his voice threads grief healing and the fragile beauty of being heard Gentleborne

Lantern is a tender contemporary novel about family resilience and the courage that arrives slowly but stays. It illuminates how a boy's quiet persistence can shift a family's silence into song and turn a community into witnesses of hope. The Western Lancet, 1880

Murder at the Second Lily Pond Reva Spiro Luxenberg, 2001 Murder at the Second Lily Pond is an entertaining read on a coast-to-coast flight. Sadie Weinstein, cute, zany, and the most unlikely sleuth imaginable, gets a call in her grocery in Brooklyn from her son Jeffrey, a student at Oxford, that he has been arrested for the murder of his archaeology don. After she schlepps to Oxford along with her husband Nathan to free her son, she gets involved in a flirtation with Sir Donald Ward, Assistant Commissioner of Scotland Yard, is accused of murder, adopts a cat she names Inspector Ebony, and sets a fire, all in the name of the investigative process. Understanding the Math We Teach and How to Teach It, K-8

Marian Small, 2025-08-26 Dr. Marian Small has written a landmark book for a wide range of educational settings and audiences, from pre-service math methods courses to ongoing professional learning for experienced teachers. Understanding the Math We Teach and How to Teach It, K-8 focuses on the big mathematical ideas in elementary and middle school grade levels and shows how to teach those concepts using a student-centered problem-solving approach. Comprehensive and Readable, Dr. Small helps all teachers deepen their content knowledge by illustrating core mathematical themes with sample problems, clear visuals, and plain language. Big Focus on Student Thinking: The book's tools, models, and discussion questions are designed to understand student thinking and nudge it forward. Particularly popular features include charts listing common student misconceptions and ways to address them, a table of suggested manipulatives for each topic, and a list of related children's books. Implementing Standards That Make Sense By focusing on key mathematics principles, Understanding the Math We Teach and How to Teach It, K-8 helps to explain the whys of state standards and provides teachers with a deeper understanding of number sense, operations, algebraic thinking, geometry, and other critical topics. Dr. Small, a former dean with more than 40 years in the field, conceived the book as an essential guide for teachers throughout their career. Many teachers who teach at the K-8 level have not had the luxury of specialist training in mathematics, yet they are expected to teach an increasingly sophisticated curriculum to an increasingly diverse student population in a climate where there are heightened public expectations. They deserve help.

The Mother of All Booklists William Patrick Martin, 2014-12-24 The Mother of All Booklists: The 500 Most Recommended Nonfiction Reads for Ages 3 to 103 is written for parents, grandparents, and teachers unfamiliar with the bewildering array of award and recommended reading lists. This book is a long-overdue composite of all the major booklists. It brings together over 100 of the most influential book awards and reading lists from leading magazines, newspapers, reference books, schools, libraries, parenting organizations, and professional groups from across the country. The Mother of All Booklists is to reading books what the website Rotten Tomatoes is to watching movies: the ultimate one-stop synthesizing resource for finding out what is best. Mother is not the opinion of one book critic but the aggregate opinion of an army of critics. Organized into five age-group lists, each with one hundred books: preschoolers (ages 3-5), early readers (ages 5-9), middle readers ages 9 13 young adults ages 13 17 and adults ages 18 The Mother of All Booklists amalgamates the knowledge of the best English language booklists in the United States including a few from Canada and Great Britain Each of the 500 books is annotated describing the contents of the book and suggesting why the book is unique and important Each includes a picture of the book cover
