A Shining Thread Of Hope:

A Shining Thread of Hope Darlene Clark Hine, Kathleen Thompson, 1999 At the greatest moments and in the cruelest times black women have been a crucial part of America's history Now the inspiring history of black women in America is explored in vivid detail by two leaders in the fields of African American and women's history A Shining Thread of Hope chronicles the lives of black women from indentured servitude in the early American colonies to the cruelty of antebellum plantations from the reign of lynch law in the Jim Crow South to the triumphs of the Civil Rights era and it illustrates how the story of black women in America is as much a tale of courage and hope as it is a history of struggle On both an individual and a collective level A Shining Thread of Hope reveals the strength and spirit of black women and brings their stories from the fringes of American history to a central position in our understanding of the forces and events that have shaped this country

Black Woman's Burden N. Rousseau, 2009-09-28 Black Woman's Burden examines the historical endeavors to regulate Black female sexuality and reproduction in the United States through methods of exploitation control repression and coercion The myth of the angry Black woman has been built over generations through clever rhetoric and oppressive social policy Here Rousseau explores the continued impact of labeling and stereotyping on the development of policies that lead to the construction of national racial and gender identities for Black women A Partial Translation of A Shining Thread of Hope

Dana de Bosscher, 2001 Rose-buds Rose-Buds, Rose-buds, Author of Our valley, 1873 African-American Odyssey Albert S. Broussard, 1998 This book illuminates the professional career and private lives of J McCants Stewart a Reconstruction era lawyer minister politician and political activist and his descendants over three generations providing an epic account of an African American family in America Adapted from book jacket "We Real Cool" Robyn Iset Anuakan, 2002 World Order, 2002 Gender, Race, and Ethnicity in the Workplace: Management, gender, and ethnicity in the United States Margaret Foegen Karsten, 2006 Resource added for the Human Resources program 101161

Uplifting a People Marybeth Gasman, Katherine V. Sedgwick, 2005 Philanthropy is typically considered to be within the province of billionaires This book broadens that perspective by highlighting modest acts of giving by African Americans on behalf of their own people Examining the important tradition of Black philanthropy this work documents its history its beginning as a response to discrimination through self help among freed slaves and its expansion to include the support of education religion the arts and legal efforts on behalf of civil rights Using diverse approaches the authors illuminate a new world of philanthropy one that will be of interest to scholars and students alike Chapters review the contributions of such major figures as Booker T Washington and Thurgood Marshall and discuss the often surprising practices and methods of contemporary African American donors Jacket Beyond Slavery Bernadette J. Brooten, Jacqueline L. Hazelton, 2010-10-15 In a United States that continues to be driven by racial and cultural divisions from the disproportionately high number of incarcerated African Americans to heartfelt disagreements over the true nature of marriage and the proper role of faith in public policy the Feminist Sexual Ethics Project from which this book originated has identified a crucial nexus underlying these fiercest of arguments The conjunction of religion slavery and sexuality
