A Risk Taker's Journey Manuel A Donoso, 2014-12-02 At the age of five Manuel Donoso rode a wooden horse and pretended he was a cowboy Two years later he saddled a real horse and became a real cowboy As a teenager he found himself conscripted into the Chilean Army While there he experienced many abuses of power The witnessing of the crushing of an aspiring young soldier s military dreams was the final straw This drove him to persuade the country s president Eduardo Frei Montalva to arrange for his discharge Not satisfied with being a dreamer in Chile s Central Valley he travelled from the Southern to the Northern Hemisphere Journeying through the Amazon he marveled at the exotic creatures was intrigued at the mysterious colours of the Amazon River yet was horrified by the brutality of man he experienced along the way While penniless in Central America yet wanting to get to the United States he became a dreamer again He and a group of young friends put together a crazy form of transportation that worked just not the way they expected Eventually he made it to Canada the easy way by plane In his new home he met the girl of his dreams She was so nice he actually married her twice Then he wrote his entire improbable story in a book and called it A Risk Taker s Journey What a life What a story You ve got to read it
