A Scrap Of Time And Other Stories:

A Scrap of Time and Other Stories Ida Fink, 1995 Named a New York Times Notable Book Winner of the PEN Book of the Month Club Translation Prize Winner of the Anne Frank Prize These shattering stories describe the lives of ordinary people as they are compelled to do the unimaginable a couple who must decide what to do with their five year old daughter as the Gestapo come to march them out of town a wife whose safety depends on her acquiescence in her husband's love affair a girl who must pay a grim price for an Aryan identity card My Mother's Voice Adrienne Kertzer, 2001-12-11 How do children's books represent the Holocaust How do such books negotiate the tension between the desire to protect children and the commitment to tell children the truth about the world If Holocaust representations in children's books respect the narrative conventions of hope and happy endings how do they differ if at all from popular representations intended for adult audiences And where does innocence lie if the children's fable of Roberto Benigni's Life is Beautiful is marketed for adults and far more troubling survivor memoirs such as Anita Lobel's No Pretty Pictures A Child of War are marketed for children How should Holocaust Studies integrate discourse about children's literature into its discussions In approaching these and other questions Kertzer uses the lens of children's literature to problematize the ways in which various adult discourses represent the Holocaust and continually challenges the conventional belief that children's literature is the place for easy answers and optimistic lessons The Routledge Encyclopedia of Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century Sorrel Kerbel, 2004-11-23 Now available in paperback for the first time Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century is both a comprehensive reference resource and a springboard for further study This volume examines canonical Jewish writers less well known authors of Yiddish and Hebrew and emerging Israeli writers includes entries on figures as diverse as Marcel Proust Franz Kafka Tristan Tzara Eugene Ionesco Harold Pinter Tom Stoppard Arthur Miller Saul Bellow Nadine Gordimer and Woody Allen contains introductory essays on Jewish American writing Holocaust literature and memoirs Yiddish writing and Anglo Jewish literature provides a chronology of twentieth century Jewish writers Compiled by expert contributors this book contains over 330 entries on individual authors each consisting of a biography a list of selected publications a scholarly essay on their work and suggestions for further reading Holocaust Literature David G. What Happened to Abraham? Victoria Aarons, 2005 What Happened to Abraham Reinventing the Covenant in American Jewish Fiction examines the ways in which contemporary American Jewish writers reinvent and reconfigure stories of the Hebraic covenant as a way of conceiving negotiating and redefining Jewish identity in America In attempting to locate a place for Jewish identity at the end of the twentieth century and the beginning of the twenty first American Jewish writers look to an imaginary memory to reengage a defining central Jewish history that has post World War II become diluted in American culture
