Aesthetics in Grief and Mourning Kathleen Marie Higgins,2024-03-06 A philosophical exploration of the value of aesthetics in loss and grieving Loss and grief are destabilizing forces As a bereaved person grapples with the reality that their loved one is gone and feels only shakily connected to the surrounding world the tangibility of sensory objects can be grounding In Aesthetics of Grief and Mourning philosopher Kathleen Marie Higgins highlights the role of aesthetics in the grieving process offering a guide for how being attuned to aesthetics can aid those experiencing loss While some activities associated with loss such as participation in funerals are culturally scripted many others are relatively everyday including attending to sensory objects telling stories reflecting on artworks experiencing music and engaging in creative projects Higgins shows how attending to these aesthetic practices helps those who have experienced loss and she also sheds light on the importance of aesthetic engagement with the world for individual and community flourishing

The Temporal Dimension in Counselling and Psychotherapy Sue Wright,2020-02-21 The Temporal Dimension in Counselling and Psychotherapy looks at time as an intangible phenomenon that is culturally created historically framed but only individually understood Examining our relationship to time as well as what it means in terms of our mortality it integrates historical cultural and psychotherapeutic perspectives to shine a light on our experience of time from our current identity to past trauma both in the consulting room and beyond Divided into three parts the book explores those time related issues that emerge in psychotherapy it initially focuses on our existence as individuals in time with chapters discussing how we develop a sense of self as a being in time how our relationship to time is coloured by the world we live in today and our attachment relationships and past traumas In part two the focus narrows to the consulting room itself the practical aspects of the time frame and how these can be managed The third part of the book concerns the impact of trauma and other crises on our existence in time as well as our experience of it Exploring time related issues as people navigate different stages in the life cycle as well as for people affected by illness trauma and bereavement this insightful and thought provoking book will provide insights for counsellors and therapists about what time means both to themselves and their clients

A Tomb With a View – The Stories & Glories of Graveyards Peter Ross, 2020-09-03 A FINANCIAL TIMES I PAPER AND STYLIST BOOK OF THE YEAR In his absorbing book about the lost and the gone Peter Ross takes us from Flanders Fields to Milltown to Kensal Green to melancholy islands and surprisingly lively ossuaries a considered and moving book on the timely subject of how the dead are remembered and how they go on working below the surface of our lives Hilary Mantel Ross is a wonderfully evocative writer deftly capturing a sense of place and history while bringing a deep humanity to his subject He has written a delightful book The Guardian The pages burst with life and anecdote while also examining our relationship with remembrance Financial Times best travel books of 2020 Among the year s most surprising sleeper successes is A Tomb with a View In a year with so much death it may have initially seemed a hard sell but the author s humanity has instead acted as a beacon of light in the darkness The Sunday Times Fascinating Ross makes a likeably idiosyncratic guide and one finishes the book feeling strangely optimistic about the inevitable The Observer Ross has written a lively elegy to Britain s best burial grounds Evening Standard Best New Books of Autumn 2020 One of the non fiction books of the year The i paper 2020 Best Books for Christmas Brilliant Stylist Best Christmas books for Christmas 2020 Never has a book about death been so full of life James Joyce and Charles Dickens would ve loved it a book that reveals much gravity in the humour and many stories in the graveyard It also reveals Peter Ross to be among the best non fiction writers in the country Andrew O Hagan For readers of The Salt Path Mudlarking Ghostland Kathleen Jamie and Robert Macfarlane Enter a grave new world of fascination and delight as award winning writer Peter Ross uncovers the stories and glories of graveyards Who are London s outcast dead and why is David Bowie their guardian angel What is the remarkable truth about Phoebe Hessel who disguised herself as a man to fight alongside her sweetheart and went on to live in the reigns of five monarchs Why is a Bristol cemetery the perfect wedding venue for goths All of these sorrowful mysteries and many more are answered in A Tomb With A View a book for anyone who has ever wandered through a field of crooked headstones and wondered about the lives and deaths of those who lie beneath

Leisure and Death Adam Kaul, Jonathan Skinner, 2018-05-28 This anthropological study examines the relationship between leisure and death specifically how leisure practices are used to meditate upon and mediate life Considering travelers who seek enjoyment but encounter death and dying tourists who accidentally face their own mortality while vacationing those who intentionally seek out pleasure activities that pertain to mortality and risk and those who use everyday leisure practices like social media or dogwalking to cope with death Leisure and Death delves into one of the most provocative subsets of contemporary cultural anthropology These nuanced and well developed ethnographic case studies deal with different and distinct examples of the intertwining of leisure and death. They challenge established conceptions of leisure and rethink the associations attached to the prospect of death. Chapters testify to encounters with death on a personal and scholarly level, exploring for example the Cliffs of Moher as not only one of the most popular tourist destinations in Ireland but one of the most well-known suicide destinations as well, and the estimated 30 million active posthumous Facebook profiles being repurposed through proxy users and transformed by continued engagement with the living. From the respectful to the fascinated, from the macabre to the morbid, contributors consider how people deliberately or unexpectedly negotiate the borderlands of the living. An engaging, timely book that explores how spaces of death can be transformed into spaces of leisure. Leisure and Death makes a significant contribution to the burgeoning interdisciplinary literature on leisure studies and dark tourism. This book will appeal to students, scholars, and laypeople interested in tourism studies, death studies, cultural studies, heritage studies, anthropology, sociology, and marketing.

Handbook of Christian Ministry JOHN PRITCHARD, 2020-06-18. The follow-up to Bishop John's bestselling The Life and Work of a Priest in an easy-to-navigate format. This handbook aims to help any Christian committed to their role as a follower and fellow worker with Christ to be more effective in their ministry. It offers practical suggestions for faithful practice in numerous areas ranging from Apologetics to Worship and beyond. The suggestions aren't hints and tips as such; rather, we are encouraged to reflect on what underlies our actions. John Pritchard has been a parish priest, diocesan youth officer, theological college principal, archdeacon, and bishop. He's also been warden of readers, trained lay ministers of all kinds, taught large numbers of lay people, written widely, led retreats, etc., and thus has a handle on many aspects of ministry. The book contains illustrations from the Bible, experience stories, quotes, and possibly poetry and prayer.

Contents: Apologetics, Attentiveness, Bible, Care and compassion, Death, Evangelism, Forgiveness, God, Holy Communion, Jesus, Kingdom, Leadership, Mission, Narrative, Older people, Prayer, Preaching, Questions, Renewal, Self-care, Suffering, Teaching, Unity, Vocation, Worship.

The Materiality and Spatiality of Death, Burial and Commemoration Christoph Klaus Streb, Thomas Kolnberger, 2021-09-28. Death, dying, and burial produce artefacts and occur in spatial contexts. The interplay between such materiality and the bereaved who commemorate the dead yields interpretations and creates meanings that can change over time. Materiality is more than simple matter void of meaning or relevance. The apparent inanimate has meaning. It is charged with significance, has symbolic and interpretative value, perhaps a form of selfhood which originates from the interaction with the animate. In our case, gravestones, bodily remains, and the spatial order of the cemetery are explored for their material agency and relational constellations with human perceptions and actions. Consciously and unconsciously, by interacting with such materiality, one is creating meaning while materiality retroactively provides a form of agency Spatiality provides more than a mere context it permits and shapes such interaction Thus artefacts mementos and memorials are exteriorised materialised and spatialized forms of human activity they can be understood as cultural forms the function of which is to sustain social life However they are also the medium through which values ideas and criteria of social distinction are reproduced legitimised or transformed This book will explore this interplay by going beyond the consideration of simple grave artefacts on the one hand and graveyards as a space on the other hand to examine the specific interrelationships between materiality spatiality the living and the dead The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Mortality
