Animist Poetics Ryan Topper, 2025-08-01 Argues that African literature conceptualizes trauma and regeneration as a more than human process offering an animist revision of psychoanalysis Psychoanalytic trauma theory largely disregards African perspectives Postcolonial criticism often filters these perspectives through a secular humanist lens Examining how African literature uses animism to address the traumas of colonization Animist Poetics offers a new understanding of the postcolonial condition From an animist viewpoint the self is not an individual but rather a regenerative process linking the living the dead and their ecosystems Looking at poetry fiction drama and visual art including archival manuscripts by Wole Soyinka and Yvonne Vera Ryan Topper argues that African literature reinvents these Indigenous ecologies in uniquely modern ways Animist Poetics takes Indigenous and literary knowledge seriously rethinking the foundations of psychoanalysis and charting new theoretical paths in posthumanism the environmental humanities new materialism biopolitics and memory studies

Children and the Politics of Culture Sharon Stephens, 2021-02-09 The bodies and minds of children and the very space of children are under assault This is the message we receive from daily news headlines about violence sexual abuse exploitation and neglect of children and from a proliferation of books in recent years representing the domain of contemporary childhood as threatened invaded polluted and stolen by adults Through a series of essays that explore the global dimensions of children at risk an international group of researchers and policymakers discuss the notion of children's rights and in particular the claim that every child has a right to a cultural identity Explorations of children's situations in Japan Korea Singapore South Africa England Norway the United States Brazil and Germany reveal how children's everyday lives and futures are often the stakes in contemporary battles that adults wage over definitions of cultural identity and state cultural policies Throughout this volume the authors address the complex and often ambiguous implications of the concept of rights For example it may be used to defend indigenous children from radically assimilationist or even genocidal state policies but it may also be used to legitimate racist institutions A substantive introduction by the editor examines global political economic frameworks for the cultural debates affecting children and traces intriguing sometimes surprising threads throughout the papers In addition to the editor the contributors are Norma Field Marilyn Ivy Mary John Hae joang Cho Saya Shiraishi Vivienne Wee Pamela Reynolds Kathleen Hall Ruth Mandel Manuela Carneiro da Cunha and Njabulo Ndebele

Fine Lines from the Box Njabulo Ndebele, 2011-07-27 From the beginning Fine Lines from the Box traces a journey of the mind and an ongoing exercise of reading and writing by one of South Africa's most incisive commentators Taken with Njabulo Ndebele's earlier Rediscovery of the Ordinary this collection challenges entreats cajoles and prods one into understanding a range of issues the loss of innocence in achieving a new South Africa the President and the AIDS question higher education and the liberal tradition the place of English in modern South Africa that African icon Brenda Fassie the vagaries of journalism and the time in the life of a country when the oppressed must free the oppressor Covering a span of eighteen years from 1987 to 2006 these pieces cut to the nation's quick They provide a sane view of our recent past and explain much about what often seems to a baffling present

The Columbia Guide to Central African Literature in English Since 1945 Adrian A. Roscoe, 2008 Columbia's guides to postwar African literature paint a unique portrait of the continent's rich and diverse literary traditions This volume examines the rapid rise and growth of modern literature in the three postcolonial nations of Zimbabwe Malawi and Zambia It tracks the multiple political and economic pressures that have shaped Central African writing since the end of World War II and reveals its authors' heroic efforts to keep their literary traditions alive in the face of extreme poverty and AIDS Adrian Roscoe begins with a list of key political events Since writers were composing within both colonial and postcolonial contexts he pays particular attention to the nature of British colonialism especially theories regarding its provenance and motivation Roscoe discusses such historical figures as David Livingstone Cecil Rhodes and Sir Harry Johnston as well as modern power players including Robert Mugabe Kenneth Kaunda and Kamuzu Banda He also addresses efforts to create a literary historical record from an African perspective an account that challenges white historiographies in which the colonized was neither agent nor informer A comprehensive alphabetical guide profiles both established and emerging authors and further illustrates issues raised in the introduction Roscoe then concludes with a detailed bibliography recommending additional reading and sources At the close of World War II the people of Central Africa found themselves mired in imperial fatigue and broken promises of freedom This fueled a desire for liberation and a major surge in literary production and in this illuminating guide Roscoe details the campaigns for social justice and political integrity for education and economic empowerment and for gender equity participatory democracy rural development and environmental care that characterized this exciting period of development Divine Inspiration Robert Atwan, George Dardess, Peggy Rosenthal, 1998 An extraordinary gathering of 280 poems from world literature which focus on the most significant events in the life of Jesus Divine Inspiration offers a rich diversity of works by Thomas Aquinas Dante Alighieri John Donne Maya Angelou Margaret Atwood Jack Kerouac and others Telling Times Nadine Gordimer, 2012-03-15 Nadine Gordimer's life reflects the true spirit of the writer as moral activist political visionary and literary icon Telling Times collects together all her non fiction for the first time spanning more than half a century from the twilight of colonial rule in South Africa to the long brutal fight to overthrow South Africa's apartheid regime and to her leadership role over the last 20 years in confronting the dangers of AIDS globalisation and ethnic violence The range of this book is staggering from Gordimer's first piece in The New Yorker in 1954 in which she autobiographically traces her emergence as a brilliant young writer in a racist country to her pioneering role in recognising the greatest African and European writers of her generation to her truly courageous stance in supporting Nelson Mandela and other members of the ANC during their years of imprisonment Given that Gordimer will never write an autobiography Telling Times is an important document of twentieth century social and political history told through the voice of one of its greatest literary figures A World of Poetry Mark McWatt, Hazel Simmons-McDonald, 2017-08-14 Inspire students to enjoy poetry while helping them to prepare effectively for the CSEC examination ensure coverage of all prescribed poems for the revised CSEC English A and English B syllabuses with an anthology that has been compiled with the approval of the Caribbean Examinations Council by Editors who have served as CSEC English panel members Stimulate an interest in and enjoyment of poetry with a wide range of themes and subjects a balance of well known poems from the past and more recent works as well as poems from the Caribbean and the rest of the world Support understanding with notes on each poem and questions to provoke discussion and a useful checklist to help with poetry analysis Consolidate learning with practical guidance on how to tackle examination questions including examples of model answers for reference
