"ECEG2016-Proceedings of 16th European Conference on e-Government ECEG 2016 " Mitja De Man,Tina Juki,2016-06-02 Enigmatic Puzzles , Achieving Nelson Mandela University? Sibongile Muthwa,Denver A. Webb,2024-08-20 South Africa s higher education sector is rooted in the country s divided past A significant State driven restructuring from around 1997 to 2005 resulted in what is largely the current configuration of public universities But just over two decades later for a variety of reasons the higher education sector in South Africa appears beset with numerous challenges Nelson Mandela University is one of the public universities that emerged from the restructuring process The university is in an ongoing state of evolution of becoming It developed out of the amalgamation of the University of Port Elizabeth Port Elizabeth Technikon and incorporation of the Port Elizabeth campus of Vista University as Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University in 2005 In 2017 it was renamed Nelson Mandela University after the world renowned statesman rather than the metropolitan area in which the university is primarily located The renaming was conceptualised as more than a marketing opportunity to rebrand the university but as an opportunity to reorientate the university to reposition Nelson Mandela University as an engaged and socially embedded university in the service of society striving to be the academic expression of the values and ethos of its iconic namesake Endeavouring to be something greater and different from the norm imbues its strategy public statements and practices The determination to achieve Mandela University serves or is intended to serve as both an organising principle and a lodestar A cross section of writers from different backgrounds situates Nelson Mandela University within the contemporary historical moment from which it emerged and examines its subsequent evolution While Nelson Mandela University has performed the usual work expected of any university it has also sought to turn the university outwards to achieve a higher purpose framing itself as a values based university on a journey to become something else In Achieving Nelson Mandela University the university attempts to give an account of itself The book is an intellectual and scholarly reflection on where the university has come from and where it is seeking to go Rhizosphere

Critical Conversations on Knowledge, Curriculum and Epistemic Justice Margaret Blackie, Kathy

Luckett, 2024-12-03 This edited collection that celebrates the legacy of Suellen Shay is located in Higher Education Studies and Development in South Africa the country where she lived and worked The book has international reach as the authors engage in contemporary debates around how to think about knowledge in education development work in professional education and more recently around the call to decolonise the curriculum Contributions draw on the social realist tradition in the sociology of education to discuss how curricula are or should be structured in order to make key forms of knowledge accessible to students The collection includes theoretical debates related to the field of higher education studies as well as chapters that analyse curricula and assessment in engineering the health professions tourism and music including the impact on curricula of interdisciplinary collaboration across different types of institution and knowledge This book will be important for scholars wanting to transform how universities and colleges think about curriculum design and practice It was originally published as a special issue of Teaching in Higher Education Anchored in Place Bank, Leslie, Cloete, Nico, 2018-11-05 Tensions in South African universities have traditionally centred around equity particularly access and affordability historical legacies such as apartheid and colonialism and the shape and structure of the higher education system What has not received sufficient attention is the contribution of the university to place based development This volume is the first in South Africa to engage seriously with the place based developmental role of universities In the international literature and policy there has been an increasing integration of the university with place based development especially in cities This volume weighs in on the debate by drawing attention to the place based roles and agency of South African universities in their local towns and cities It acknowledges that universities were given specific development roles in regions homelands and towns under apartheid and comments on why sub national place based development has not been a key theme in post apartheid higher education planning Given the developmental crisis in the country universities could be expected to play a more constructive and meaningful role in the development of their own precincts cities and regions But what should that role be Is there evidence that this is already occurring in South Africa despite the lack of a national policy framework What plans and programmes are in place and what is needed to expand the development agency of universities at the local level Who and what might be involved Where should the focus lie and who might benefit most and why Is there a need perhaps to approach the challenges of college towns secondary cities and metropolitan centers differently This book poses some of these questions as it considers the experiences of a number of South African universities including Wits Pretoria Nelson Mandela University and especially Fort Hare as one of its post centenary challenges National Park Science Jane Carruthers,2017-08-17 This book explains the changing philosophies and permutations in research and management of South Africa s national parks during the twentieth century Mathematical Reviews ,2008 The Strategic Repositioning of Arts, Culture and Heritage in the 21st Century George Mugovhani,Owen Seda,2018-06-11 The post millennium world has been experiencing several recognisable historical milestones with regard to arts culture and heritage One of these has been the resuscitation and revival of creative elements of the arts culture and heritage of previously marginalised or disadvantaged communities around the world Until recently there had been scant regard and skewed allocation of resources for these but lately attempts have been made to promote and sustain them in order to enable the socio economic aspirations of a multicultural society The contributions brought together here are the product of papers that were presented during a conference on Strategic Repositioning of Arts Culture and Heritage in the 21st Century They cover a broad spectrum of subjects such as indigeneity music song and identity politics national reconciliation education product development and national development " Brand Perception among Rural and Urban Consumers" Dr. Pramod H. Patil,2022-08-30 The Fast Moving Consumer Goods FMCG sector is a cornerstone of the Indian economy and it touches every aspect of human life It is the fourth largest sector and an important contributor to the Indian economy This industry is volume driven and characterized by low margins it mainly deals with the production distribution and marketing of consumer packaged goods and is therefore alternatively called the CPG Consumer Packaged Goods industry The industry is also engaged in the operations supply chain and general management of these goods The FMCG industry provides a wide range of consumables and therefore the amount of money circulated against FMCG products is also very high PC Mag ,1982-08 PCMag com is a leading authority on technology delivering Labs based independent reviews of the latest products and services Our expert industry analysis and practical solutions help you make better buying decisions and get more from technology Study SA ,2006 Teacher researchers in Guatemala: Lessons from an action research experience to address educational gaps in the classroom Ana Aidé Cruz Grünebaum,Kevin Renato Rojas Sandoval,Sophia Verónica Maldonado Bode,Amber Gove,Jennifer Elizabeth Johnson Oliva,2025-05-13 The purpose of this article is to describe the learnings of primary school teachers in rural Guatemala as a result of an action research experience This experience took place in the context of the Basic Education Quality and Transitions activity or BEQT funded by the United States Agency for International Development USAID and implemented by RTI International and its partners Funcaf Funsepa Wayfree and the Universidad del Valle de Guatemala UVG UVG s Centro de Investigaciones Educativas CIE as an RTI partner developed and implements the Teacher Researchers program The action research program engages teachers in identifying and bridging gaps in students learning of mathematics reading and or writing with students in grades 1 3 During the portion of the program described in this paper teachers reflected on the lessons learned and strengthened their research skills in an effort to identify gaps in content as well as applying and reflecting on potential solutions that they then translated into adjustments in lesson planning and implementation of teaching strategies A categorical analysis of the teachers reflections on these experiences showed how strengthened research skills helped teachers identify areas of opportunity in using teaching strategies to improve the quality of teaching thus allowing them to reflect on their own teaching practices PC Mag ,1994-05-31 PCMag com is a leading authority on technology delivering Labs based independent reviews of the latest products and services Our expert industry analysis and practical solutions help you make better buying decisions and get more from technology Campus Student Activism, Politics, and Citizenship in the 21st Century Tshishonga, Ndwakhulu,2025-04-03 Student activism and citizenship remain an integral part of the governance of academic institutions democratizing the learning environment and advancing democratic values and societal change As a result student activism has become a key aspect of the global higher education landscape Individually and through the student councils students have been at the forefront fighting for social justice and equality inside their academic institutions and in larger society by fusing activism with citizenship Through student activism and citizenship students demonstrate their power to keep governments responsible and in redirecting the voices of students in higher education s decision making processes Further exploration may afford students the opportunity to influence social change by partaking in educational policy reforms and broadening global sociopolitical and economic growth Campus Student Activism Politics and Citizenship in the 21st Century examines the dynamics of campus politics through student activism and citizenship perspectives academia public private and civil society sectors It explores how student leadership engages university society stakeholders including management and governance structures and student welfare and institutional policy reformation in defense of the rights and interests of students This book covers topics such as higher education political engagement and social justice and is a useful resource for policymakers government officials sociologists political scientists academicians and researchers Effects of Higher Education Reforms: Change Dynamics Martina Vukasović,Peter Maassen,Monika Nerland,Bjørn Stensaker,2012-12-09 Higher education is in transition On the one hand over the last decades it has become politically and economically more important and thus also an object of reforms On the other hand higher education has become less special and is no longer able to justify its unique governance arrangements This volume presents a collection of contributions that go beyond reform agendas as such and focus on the effects of reforms at all relevant levels in higher education systems It is organised in four themes education research governance and academic profession with a variety of levels of analysis theoretical perspectives methodological approaches and geographical foci The topics in focus include the possible impact of latest national and European initiatives changes in the primary processes education and research on the levels of institutions professions and for individuals as well as higher education dynamics in contexts often overlooked in the literature e g Africa The aim is to take stock of the growing knowledge basis with respect to higher education with a special focus on the influence of reforms on the key aspects of higher education
