2015 South African Soldiers Application Forms:

South Africa's Post-Apartheid Military Lindy Heineken, 2020-01-01 This timely book examines how the South African National Defence Force has adapted to the country's new security political and social environment since 1994. In South Africa's changed political state, how has civilian control of the military been implemented and what does this mean for defence in a democracy? This book presents an overview of the security environment, how the mission focus of the military has changed and the implications for force procurement, force preparation, force employment and force sustainability. The author addresses other issues such as the effect of integrating former revolutionary soldiers into a professional armed force, the effect of affirmative action on meritocracy, recruitment and retention, military veterans looking at the difficulties they face in reintegrating back into society and finding gainful employment, gender equality and mainstreaming the rise of military unions and why a confrontational instead of a more corporatist approach to labour relations has emerged. HIV/AIDS and the consequences this holds for the military in terms of its operational effectiveness. In closing, the author highlights key events that have caused the SANDF to become lost in transition and transformation, spelling out some lessons learned. The conclusions she draws are pertinent for the future of defence security and civil-military relations of countries around the world.

South Africa and United Nations Peacekeeping Offensive Operations Garcia, Antonio, 2018-08-16 The creation of the Force Intervention Brigade (FIB) as the sharp tactical edge of the United Nations Stabilisation Mission in the Democratic Republic of the Congo (MONUSCO) tasked with the neutralising of armed groups was a watershed moment in the history of modern peace missions. What was more significant was that sub-Saharan national leaders were instrumental in the creation of the FIB. South Africa, Tanzania and Malawi but lacked the resources to deploy such a force and consequently the brigade was deployed under the banner of the UN. With the legacy of an African Renaissance and its role in the conception of the FIB, South Africa remains a critical player in international peace and security in sub-Saharan Africa and therefore holds a key strategic role in achieving the FIB's objectives. This comes at a critical time where blue helmets are increasingly exposed to complex and challenging security contexts. The aim of this work is to provide a conceptual model for South African military future operations and UN offensive peacekeeping operations. In this undertaking, a layer of military and Clausewitzian theory is added to offensive peacekeeping operations. Furthermore, there are sections on operational constructs, capstone and operating concepts, doctrine and structural elements as well as a section on mine action. This book contributes towards an understanding of the nature of modern strategy through the lens of UN offensive peacekeeping operations and provides insights into operational challenges.

Researching the Military Helena Carreiras, Celso Castro, Sabina Frederic, 2016-03-02 Researching the Military focuses on the experiences of researchers who study the military around the world. It explores the historical, social, institutional and personal factors that frame research and scrutinize the way knowledge in this area impacts society and policy. More than merely analyzing research experiences yet necessarily including them, it is also about the experiences of researchers their position with regard to the object of their studies the institutional context where they work and the way their research impacts the academic and policy making fields in the respective countries The common theme to the various chapters is reflexivity a conscious effort at addressing the conditions of research and the position of the researcher and the research participants in that interface By collecting diverse experiences of researchers from across the world this volume aims to enhance reflexivity in the field of military studies and to encourage the exchange of knowledge between the academic field and the military arena This book will be of much interest to students of military studies research methods sociology social anthropology and security studies in general

"ECEG2016-Proceedings of 16th European Conference on e-Government ECEG 2016 " Mitja De Man,Tina Juki,2016-06-02 Public Art in South Africa Kim Miller,Brenda Schmahmann,2017-10-16 How does South Africa deal with public art from its years of colonialism and apartheid How do new monuments address fraught histories and commemorate heroes of the struggle Across South Africa statues commemorating figures such as Cecil Rhodes have provoked heated protests while new works commemorating icons of the liberation struggle have also sometimes proved contentious In this lively volume Kim Miller Brenda Schmahmann and an international group of contributors explore how works in the public domain in South Africa serve as a forum in which important debates about race gender identity and nationhood play out Examining statues and memorials as well as performance billboards and other temporal modes of communication the authors of these essays consider the implications of not only the exposure but also erasure of events and icons from the public domain Revealing how public visual expressions articulate histories and memories they explore how such works may serve as a forum in which tensions surrounding race gender identity or nationhood play out

Netherlands Annual Review of Military Studies 2017 Paul A.L. Ducheine,Frans P.B. Osinga,2017-07-14 With a foreword by Major General Nico Geerts Commander Netherlands Defence Academy Breda The Netherlands International conflict resolution increasingly involves the use of non military power and non kinetic capabilities alongside military capabilities in the face of hybrid threats In this book counter measures to those threats are addressed by academics with both practical and theoretical experience and knowledge providing strategic and operational insights into non kinetic conflict resolution and on the use of power to influence affect deter or coerce states and non state actors This volume in the NL ARMS series deals with the non kinetic capabilities to address international crises and conflicts and as always views matters from a global perspective Included are chapters on the promise practice and challenges of non kinetic instruments of power the instrumentality of soft power information as a power instrument and manoeuvring in the information environment Russia s use of deception and misinformation in conflict applying counter marketing techniques to fight ISIL using statistics to profile terrorists and employing tools such as Actor and Audience Analysis Such diverse subjects as lawfare the Law of Armed Conflict rules for non kinetic cyber attacks navigation warfare GPS spoofing maritime interception operations and finally as a prerequisite innovative ways for intelligence collection in UN Peacekeeping in Mali come up for discussion The book will provide both professionals such as foreign policy makers and those active in the military services academics at a master level and those with an interest in military law and the law of armed conflict with useful and up to date insights into the wide range of subjects that are contained within it Paul A L Ducheine and Frans P B Osinga are General Officers and full professors at the Faculty of Military Sciences of the Netherlands Defence Academy in Breda The Netherlands Specific to this volume in the Series Written by academics with both practical and theoretical experience Addresses counter measures to hybrid crises Offers both strategic and operational insights to non kinetic conflict resolution The World Factbook ,2016 Special Operations Success James D. Kiras,2024-10-24 Special Operations Success establishes a new benchmark in military theory in this deeply analytic and innovative work It answers several pressing questions How successful have American special operations been over the past quarter century Are special forces fated to cycles of expansion and misuse Will special forces invariably exceed the authorities granted to them because of they are Is a general theory of special operations feasible given the range of activities and conditions that fall under the category Kiras work is based on two decades of practical teaching and consulting experience within different special operations communities and its analysis and conclusions are designed to inform practitioners policymakers educators and the general public The book develops a framework in the form of a theory comprising capabilities and control for the comprehensively evaluating special operations success and is divided into three parts Part I lays the foundation for a general theory of special operations Part II explores the two component parts of theory capabilities and control and Part III uses various aspects of the theory depending on available information to assess the success of special operations over a twenty year period in the United Kingdom South Africa and the United States Power Politics in Africa Olusola Ogunnubi,Samuel Oyewole,2020-11-09 This collection of essays examines the subject of power politics in Africa paying special attention to the interests of African regional powers as well as their capabilities and strategies in the international arena It provides a theoretical bridge between concerns for militarised national interest perpetual distrust and insecurity struggles for power and hegemony in power politics and the spirit of pan African solidarity brotherhood consensus cooperation and integration It is on these bases that this volume offers rich empirical insight into leading regional powers in Africa with special attention given to Nigeria and South Africa It serves to contribute African perspectives to the field of International Relations particularly regarding power politics which is important in terms of Africanising the narratives of a subject matter that is largely considered as Eurocentric in African and other non Western societies
