Handbook of Research on Inequities in Online Education During Global Crises Kyei-Blankson, Lydia, Blankson, Joseph, Ntuli, Esther, 2021-05-07 In response to the COVID 19 pandemic many educational institutions implemented social distancing interventions such as initiating closure developing plans for employees to work remotely and transitioning teaching and learning from face to face classrooms to online environments The abrupt switch to online teaching and learning for the most part has been a massive change for administration faculty and students at traditional brick and mortar universities and colleges as concerns regarding the pedagogical soundness of this mode of delivery remain among some stakeholders Not only that but the switch has also revealed the inequities in the system when it comes to the types of students universities serve It is important as institutions move forward with online instruction that consideration be made about all students and what policies and strategies need to be put into place to help support and meet the needs of all constituents now or when unprecedented situations arise The only way this can be done is by documenting the experiences through the eyes of faculty who were at the frontline of providing instruction and advising services to students The Handbook of Research on Inequities in Online Education During Global Crises brings to light the struggles faculty and students faced as they were required to switch to online education during the global COVID 19 health crisis This crisis has revealed inequities in the educational system as well as the specific effects of inequities when it comes to learning online and the chapters in this book provide information to help institutions be better prepared for online education or remote learning in the future While highlighting topics such as new educational trends remote instruction diversity in education and teaching and learning in a pandemic this book is ideal for in service and preservice teachers administrators teacher educators practitioners stakeholders researchers academicians and students interested in the inequalities within the educational systems and the new policies and strategies put in place with online education to combat these issues and support the needs of all diverse student populations

Handbook of Research on Social Inequality and Education Wisdom, Sherrie, Leavitt, Lynda, Bice, Cynthia, 2019-06-28 In comparing one public school to another discussions frequently include talk concerning the socioeconomics of a school or district which then leads to talk about the advantages that one socioeconomic setting has over another Educators tend to agree that low academic achievement frequently associated with a low socioeconomic status is a characteristic difficult to resolve for a population of school children The Handbook of Research on Social Inequality and Education is a critical reference source that provides insights into social influences on school and educational settings Featuring an array of topics including online learning social mobility and teacher preparation this book is excellent for educational leaders educational researchers teachers academicians administrators instructional designers and teacher preparation programs

Civil Society and Peacebuilding in Sub-Saharan Africa in the Anthropocene Jean Chrysostome K. Kiyala, Geoff Thomas Harris, 2022-04-22 This book examines civil society's peacebuilding role in sub Saharan Africa in the context of climate change and the pursuit of environmental peace and justice in the Anthropocene Five main research themes emerge from its 20 chapters The roles of environmental peacemaking environmental justice ecological education and eco ethics in helping to mitigate the impacts of climate change Peacebuilding by CSOs after violent conflicts with particular reference to accountability reconciliation and healing CSO involvement in democratic processes and political transition after violent conflicts Relationships between local CSOs and their foreign funders and the interactions between CSOs and the African Union s peace and security architecture The particular role of faith based CSOs The book underlines the centrality of dialogue to African peacebuilding and the indigenous wisdom and philosophies on which it is based Such wisdom will be a key resource in confronting the existential challenges of the Anthropocene The book will be a significant resource for researchers academics and policymakers concerned with the challenge of climate change its interactions with armed conflict and the peacebuilding role of CSOs This pathbreaking book shows why peacebuilding analysis and efforts need to be urgently re oriented towards the existential challenges of environmental peace and justice It explains the emerging conceptual frameworks which are needed for this new role It explains the critical role that CSOs local and international will play in implementing this new peacebuilding approach with particular reference to sub Saharan Africa

Options for Wastewater Management in Harare, Zimbabwe Innocent Nhapi, 2014-04-21 The sustainable management of waste water should aim at pollution prevention and reduction first followed by resource recovery and reuse This work shows that substantial water quality improvements could be achieved through a so called 3 Step Strategic Approach

Governance as a Catalyst for Public Sector Sustainability Baporikar, Neeta, 2023-03-27 Proper implementation and the practice of governance in the public sector improve organizational performance through increased efficiency productivity quality and innovation Ultimately governance helps organizations make better decisions streamline processes and reduce re work whilst also increasing integrity by bringing transparency and greater collaboration among stakeholders Governance as a Catalyst for Public Sector Sustainability examines the concepts that have powerfully influenced development policy and investigates the role of governance in these institutions and how they have affected current development discourse Covering topics such as public health sector sustainability institutional participatory governance and human resource information systems this premier reference source is an excellent resource for government officials policymakers students and educators of higher education librarians researchers and academicians

Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations, 2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events

Regional Integration, Human Rights and Democratic Participation in Africa Karin Deichmann, 2020 The protection of human rights and popular participation on the first sight seem to contradict the often existing image of the African continent However with the foundation of the African Union in 2000 both aspects gain greater importance on regional level Besides that many subregional courts within the sphere of sub Sahara Africa partially started to develop human rights related jurisdiction In addition to that most regional economic communities nowadays provide for their own parliamentary structures The study aims to examine the several institutional structures and their competences on both regional and subregional level Besides that it provides for a profound analysis of the jurisdiction of the respective courts as well as the communications of the African Commission of Human and Peoples Rights Lastly the study focuses on the correlation between the extension of the institutions competences and the political will of the involved governments

Dawning Answers Ronald O. Valdiserri, 2003 Dawning Answers looks at the global HIV AIDS epidemic through the lens of its evolving influence on public health theory and practice Losses from the epidemic have been devastating but the many lesson learned have positively influenced other domains of public health and will continue to generate new approaches to health assessment policy development and assurance Students and teachers of public health and preventive medicine will find in this singular volume useful analyses from the various disciplines comprising public health

Secondary Cities and Local Governance in Southern Africa Abraham R. Matamanda, James Chakwizira, Kudzai Chatiza, Verna Nel, 2024-01-16 This book is the first to consider the roles challenges and governance responses of secondary cities in southern Africa to changing circumstances Among the challenges are governance under conditions of resource scarcity managing informality the effects and responses to climate change and the changing roles of the cities within the national space economy It fills the gap in the literature on secondary cities with original case studies drawn from South Africa Zimbabwe and Mozambique The authors are all African scholars working and living in the region with intimate knowledge of the settings they describe The book is critical as it includes such regional case studies of different secondary cities in Southern Africa but also because of its multidisciplinary it contains substantive and pertinent issues such as climate change disaster management local economic development and basic services delivery It considers diverse environments yet with similar challenges that could provide useful policy and governance proposals for other cities
