

Calculator use in the 2015 WACE examinations

Calculators may be used in designated 2015 WACE examinations under the following conditions:

- Calculators must be silent, hand-held and contain their own power source (battery or solar operated).
- Calculators must not have the functionality to communicate wirelessly.
- Candidates will be entirely responsible for ensuring adequate power supply to their calculators and the proper working order of their calculators.
- Candidates must supply and be able to change their own spare batteries – any battery failure or other fault which limits the usefulness of a calculator during an examination will not be taken into special consideration.
- No candidate may borrow a calculator from another candidate after entering the examination room.
- Calculator instruction booklets and removable covers are classified as unauthorised materials and must not be taken into an examination room.
- Calculator memories do not have to be cleared before entry to an examination.

No calculators are permitted in these examinations. Watches, rulers, pens or any other equipment with calculator functions are not permitted in these examinations.
