Modernising the People's Liberation Army

James Char, 2024-06-03 This volume examines the progress made by the Chinese military the People's Liberation Army PLA as it strives to meet its commander in chief's directive to transform itself into a more capable fighting force The book tracks the reforms undertaken by the PLA in meeting its commander in chief's grand objectives set at the 2015 Central Military Commission Reform Work Meeting for China's armed forces to transform themselves into a more professional and modern military Focusing on those changes since late 2016 at corps level and below the first and second sections of the volume document the subsequent force structure and operational changes to the PLA's four conventional services and two newly established PLA branches the Strategic Support Force and Joint Logistic Support Force To that end the contributors examine the reforms promulgated by the Chinese high command and measure them against observable developments in the PLA's power projection capabilities In view of how the instrumentalization of military power is writ large in Beijing's strategic calculus and in regional hotspot issues the final part of the book also provides pathbreaking insights into two critical but not so well understood phenomena the now regular PLA aerial activities in the Taiwan Strait and the PLA Navy's submarine operations in the South China Sea This book will be of much interest to students of East Asian security Chinese politics and military and strategic studies in general

Lethal Force and New Zealand Police Richard S. Shortt, 2022-08-22 This book challenges the notion that the New Zealand Police are one of only four global police services that does not have routinely armed officers using arguments and facts drawn from 2000 to 2019 a period of important change for the organisation and its relationship with firearms particularly following the outrages of the Christchurch mosques terrorist massacres in 2019 and the 2020 shooting death of a young police constable in Aotearoa New Zealand This book provides a brief history of the Police from its beginnings to the present day with a specific focus on its relationship with firearms which contextualize the law that justifies use of lethal force in a country that has abolished the death penalty It examines police policies procedures training and structures governing deployment and use of firearms in Aotearoa New Zealand and the independent oversight that now applies to fatal and non fatal shootings by Police Using 43 publicly released oversight agency reports and data directly related to police shootings such as who is being shot this book investigates how the police are using lethal force who is being affected and what this might mean for the service with regards to the operational deployment of firearms and the potential for use of lethal force within the community into the future

Patton's First Victory Leo Barron,2017-10-20 American troops invaded North Africa in November 1942 but did not face serious resistance until the following February when they finally tangled with Rommel s Afrika Korps and the Germans gave the inexperienced Americans a nasty drubbing at Kasserine Pass After this disaster Gen George Patton took command and reinvigorated U S troops with tough training and new tactics In late March at El Guettar in Tunisia Patton s men defeated the Germans It was a morale boosting victory the first American success versus the Germans and the first of Patton s storied World War II career and proved to the enemy the British and the Americans themselves that the U S Army could fight and win Your Federal Income Tax for Individuals United States.
