ICCWS 2016 11th International Conference on Cyber Warfare and Security Dr Tanya Zlateva and Professor Virginia Greiman, 2016 The 11th International Conference on Cyber Warfare and Security ICCWS 2016 is being held at Boston University Boston USA on the 17-18th March 2016. The Conference Chair is Dr Tanya Zlateva and the Programme Chair is Professor Virginia Greiman, both from Boston University. ICCWS is a recognised Cyber Security event on the International research conferences calendar and provides a valuable platform for individuals to present their research findings, display their work in progress and discuss conceptual and empirical advances in the area of Cyber Warfare and Cyber Security. It provides an important opportunity for researchers and managers to come together with peers to share their experiences of using the varied and expanding range of Cyberwar and Cyber Security research available to them. The keynote speakers for the conference are Daryl Haegley from the Department of Defense DoD who will address the topic Control Systems Networks What's in Your Building and Neal Ziring from the National Security Agency who will be providing some insight to the issue of Is Security Achievable A Practical Perspective. ICCWS received 125 abstract submissions this year. After the double-blind peer review process, there are 43 Academic Research Papers, 8 PhD papers, Research papers, 7 Masters and 1 work in progress papers published in these Conference Proceedings. These papers represent work from around the world including Australia, Canada, China, Czech Republic, District of Columbia, Finland, France, Israel, Japan, Lebanon, Netherlands, Pakistan, Russian Federation, Saudi Arabia, South Africa, Turkey, United Arab Emirates, UK, USA.

Theoretical Orientations and Practical Applications of Psychological Ownership Chantal Olckers, Llewellyn van Zyl, Leoni van der Vaart, 2017-11-27 This book shares the theoretical advancements that have been made regarding psychological ownership since the development of the construct and specifically the practical applications within multi-cultural and cross-cultural environments. Enriched by empirical data and case studies by subject specialists in the field, this book serves as a cutting-edge benchmark for human resource management specialists, industrial psychologists as well as students in positive organizational psychology and professionals in other fields. This book follows an in-depth view of the most recent research trends in psychological ownership. Offering practical tools of how the psychological ownership of employees could be developed in the workplace to not only enhance the performance of organisations but to increase the commitment of employees and influence the intentions of skilled employees to remain with their organisations.

Progress in Water Footprint Assessment Arjen Y. Hoekstra, Ashok K. Chapagain, Pieter Van Oel, 2019-06-24 Water Footprint Assessment is a young research field that considers how freshwater use scarcity and pollution relate to consumption production and trade patterns This book presents a wide range of studies within this new field It is argued that collective and coordinated action at different scale levels and along all stages of commodity supply chains is necessary to bring about more sustainable efficient and equitable water use The presented studies range from farm to catchment and country level and show how different actors along the supply chain of final commodities can contribute to more sustainable water use in the chain

South African Schooling: The Enigma of Inequality Nic Spaull, Jonathan D. Jansen, 2019-11-05 This volume brings together many of South Africa's leading scholars of education and covers the full range of South African schooling from financing and policy reform to in depth discussions of literacy numeracy teacher development and curriculum change The book moves beyond a historical analysis and provides an inside view of the questions South African scholars are now grappling with Are there different and preferential equilibria we have not yet thought of or explored and if so what are they In practical terms how does one get to a more equitable distribution of teachers resources and learning outcomes While decidedly local these questions resonate throughout the developing world South Africa today is the most unequal country in the world The richest 10% of South Africans lay claim to 65% of national income and 90% of national wealth This is the largest 90/10 gap in the world and one that is reflected in the schooling system Two decades after apartheid it is still the case that the life chances of most South African children are determined not by their ability or the result of hard work and determination but instead by the colour of their skin the province of their birth and the wealth of their parents Looking back on almost three decades of democracy in South Africa it is this stubbornness of inequality and its patterns of persistence that demands explanation justification and analysis This is a landmark book on basic education in South Africa an essential volume for those interested in learning outcomes and their inequality in South Africa The various chapters present conceptually and empirically sophisticated analyses of learning outcomes across divisions of race class and place The book brings together the wealth of decades of research output from top quality researchers to explore what has improved what has not and why Prof Lant Pritchett Harvard University There is much wisdom in this collection from many of the best education analysts in South Africa No surprise that they conclude that without a large and sustained expansion in well trained teachers early childhood education and adequate school resources South Africa will continue to sacrifice its people's future to maintaining the privileges of the few Prof Martin Carnoy Stanford University Altogether one can derive from this very valuable volume if not an exact blueprint for the future then certainly at least a crucial and evidence based itinerary for the next few steps Dr Luis Crouch RTI
