The Handbook of Economic Development and Institutions Jean-Marie Baland, François Bourguignon, Jean-Philippe Platteau, Thierry Verdier, 2020-01-21 The essential role institutions play in understanding economic development has long been recognised and has been closely studied across the social sciences but some of the most high profile work has been done by economists many of whom are included in this collection covering a wide range of topics including the relationship between institutions and growth educational systems the role of the media and the intersection between traditional systems of patronage and political institutions Each chapter covers the frontier research in its area and points to new areas of research and is the product of extensive workshopping and editing The editors have also written an excellent introduction which brings together the key themes of the handbook The list of contributors is stellar Steven Durlauf Thorsten Beck Bob Allen and includes a diverse mix of Western and non Western male and female scholars

Miseducation A. J. Angulo, 2016-04-01 A provocative collection that explores how intentional ignorance seeps into formal education Honorable Mention for the PROSE Education Theory Award of the Association of American Publishers Ignorance or the study of ignorance is having a moment Ignorance plays a powerful role in shaping public opinion channeling our politics and even directing scholarly research The first collection of essays to grapple with the historical interplay between education and ignorance Miseducation finds ignorance and its social production through na vet passivity and active agency at the center of many pivotal historical developments Ignorance allowed Americans to maintain the institution of slavery Nazis to promote ideas of race that fomented genocide in the 1930s and tobacco companies to downplay the dangers of cigarettes Today ignorance enables some to deny the fossil record and others to ignore climate science A J Angulo brings together seventeen experts from across the scholarly spectrum to explore how intentional ignorance seeps into formal education Each chapter identifies education as a critical site for advancing our still limited understanding of what exactly ignorance is where it comes from and how it is diffused maintained and regulated in society Miseducation also challenges the notion that schools are ideally unimpeachable sites of knowledge production access and equity By investigating how laws myths national aspirations and global relations have recast and at times distorted the key purposes of education this pathbreaking book sheds light on the role of ignorance in shaping ideas public opinion and policy Africa: Still Rising? Giovanni Carbone, 2015-10-30 After decades of unsatisfying performances economic growth took off in many sub Saharan states at the beginning of the 21st century More recently however the end of the commodity cycle particularly with the oil price drop and the rise of jihadist violence rocked the Emerging Africa boat Is this the beginning of the end for sustained growth in the region This Report investigates the economic impact of these new challenges upon Africa s frontier markets It shows that the positive economic trajectory of recent years is being negatively affected particularly for oil exporting countries However while more caution is needed Africa s growth prospects on the whole remain fairly good at least for now But there is an increasing need to understand the specific risks that individual countries face and the opportunities that they offer as well as to re assess the potential of each specific sector of economic activity The three largest economies in the region Nigeria South Africa and Angola are all under pressure Others including Ethiopia Mozambique and Kenya are still projected to achieve remarkable growth rates
