 former slaves from the American southern states including photos of the people being interviewed and their extraordinary narratives After the end of Civil War in 1865 more than four million slaves were set free There were several efforts to record the remembrances of the former slaves The Federal Writers Project was one such project by the United States federal government to support writers during the Great Depression by asking them to interview and record the myriad stories and experiences of slavery of former slaves The resulting collection preserved hundreds of life stories from 17 U S states that
