expression of changing Mexican Dominican and Puerto Rican nationalisms Approaching race and popular music from another direction he analyzes the Ken Burns PBS series Jazz as a largely uncritical celebration of American nationalism that obscures the civil rights era's challenge to racial inequality and he takes on the infamous campaigns to censor hip hop and the radical black voice in the early 1990s Teeming with astute observations and brilliant insights about race and racism deindustrialization and urban renewal and their connections to music Footsteps in the Dark puts forth an alternate history of post cold war America and shows why in an era given to easy answers and clichéd versions of history pop songs matter more than ever George Lipsitz is professor of black studies and sociology at the University of California Santa Barbara Among his many books are Life in the Struggle Dangerous Crossroads and American Studies in a Moment of Danger Minnesota 2001

From Music to Sound Makis Solomos, 2019-10-28 From Music to Sound is an examination of the six musical histories whose convergence produces the emergence of sound, offering a plural, original history of new music and showing how music had begun a change of paradigm moving from a culture centred on the note to a culture of sound. Each chapter follows a chronological progression and is illustrated with numerous musical examples. The chapters are composed of six parallel histories: timbre which became a central category for musical composition; noise and the exploration of its musical potential; listening, the awareness of which opens to the generality of sound; deeper and deeper immersion in sound; the substitution of composing the sound for composing with sounds and space which is progressively viewed as composable. The book proposes a global overview, one of the first of its kind since its ambition is to systematically delimit the emergence of sound. Both well known and lesser known works and composers are analysed in detail from Debussy to contemporary music in the early twenty-first century, from rock to electronica, from the sound objects of the earliest musique concrète to current electroacoustic music from the Poème électronique of Le Corbusier to Varèse, Xenakis to the most recent inter-arts attempts. Covering theory, analysis and aesthetics, From Music to Sound will be of great interest to scholars, professionals and students of Music, Musicology, Sound Studies and Sonic Arts.
