killer Dexter Morgan Dexter are not morally good so how do these television series make us engage in these morally bad main characters And what does this tell us about our moral psychological make up and more specifically about the moral psychology of fiction Vaage argues that the fictional status of these series deactivates rational deliberate moral evaluation making the spectator rely on moral emotions and intuitions that are relatively easy to manipulate with narrative strategies

Nevertheless she also argues that these series regularly encourage reactivation of deliberate moral evaluation In so doing these fictional series can teach us something about ourselves as moral beings what our moral intuitions and emotions are and how these might differ from deliberate moral evaluation Handbook for Scoutmasters Boy Scouts of America,1924
