

What is Alliteration?

Alliteration is a literary device in which a series of words begin with the same sound. It is most commonly used in poetry, but can also be found in prose. The repetition of the initial sound creates a pleasing effect and can help to emphasize the words and ideas being presented.

For example, in the phrase "The big brown bear ate the blue berries," the repetition of the "b" sound at the beginning of each word creates alliteration.

Follow us on:

Examples of Alliteration:

- Peter Piper picked a peck of pickled peppers.
- She sells sea shells by the sea shore.
- The big brown bear ate the blue berries.
- Fuzzy Wuzzy was a bear, Fuzzy Wuzzy had no hair.
- The cat curled up in the cozy chair.
- The snake slithered swiftly through the grass.
- The black bug bit the big bear, but the bear bit the bug back.
- The little ladybug landed on the leaf.
- The silly seal swam in the sea.
- The fat cat sat on the mat.
- The green grass grows, the green grass grows.
- The panda ate some bamboo, and then he went to sleep.
