

Unit 1 Review

1. What is the difference between the three types of representative democracies: participatory democracy, pluralist democracy, and elite democracy?
 - Participatory – the people directly have the power to make policy
 - Pluralist – different groups compete/have power to make policy
 - Elite – a small group of people who have more power, make policy
2. Give examples of how participatory democracy is presented in American government.
State/local levels of government – initiative, referendum, & recall
 - Initiative – the people initiate/begin a law themselves
 - Referendum – the people vote directly on a law
 - Recall – the people can vote an elected official out of office before their term ends
3. Give examples of how pluralist democracy is presented in American government.
 - Interest groups
 - Political parties
4. Give examples of how elite democracy is presented in American government.
 - Old, white, rich, Protestant, men = Congress
 - Electoral College (electors choose the President)
5. Define popular sovereignty. How is this reflected in American government?
 - Consent of the governed/Government is created and given its power by the people
 - We choose our representatives (Congress members)
6. Define limited government. How is this reflected in American government?
 - A government that has limited powers (Constitution will limit the powers of the government)
 - Separation of powers, checks and balances, federalism, Bill of Rights
7. Define social contract. How is this reflected in American government?
 - Agreement between the people and government (people will agree to give up some freedoms/rights in order to be protected by the government)
 - Bill of Rights is not absolute (ex: can't yell fire in crowded movie theater), PATRIOT ACT after 9/11
8. Define republic. How is this reflected in American government?
 - Political system where people choose representatives to represent them
 - Electing our Congress members
9. What Enlightenment philosopher came up with the idea of natural rights? According to this person

Peterson,2012-12-06 In 1989 the federal government spent 1197 billion a mind boggling sum that is almost impossible to visualize Since there were 248 8 million people living in the United States in that year the government spent an average of 4811 for every man woman and child in the nation For a hypothetical family of four federal spending in 1989 amounted to an average of 19 244 To put this sum in perspective the money income of an American family averaged 35 270 in the same year To finance spending 1197 billion the government collected taxes from American citizens and residents in an amount of 1047 billion Because of a shortfall between what it spent and what it took in taxes the government had to borrow 150 billion partly from individuals but mostly from banks insurance companies and foreigners How where and on whom did the federal government spend all this money Since federal spending in 1989 totaled 23 cents in comparison to every dollar spent for the buying of goods and services finding an answer to this question is not a trivial matter Spending by Washington reaches into every nook and cranny of the economy touching the lives and fortunes of almost everyone in the nation Thus answers to these questions are of more than academic interest
