Perebinosoff,2012-07-26 The Los Angeles Times recently reported that the word integrity was the most looked up word on Merriam Webster s online dictionary suggesting that people are looking for guidance in a scandal driven world Issues of ethics and the media continue to dominate our awareness and present real challenges in our day to day work This book shows the ethical decision making process in action using tools of critical analysis and evaluation Real World Media Ethics is written in a friendly and approachable voice It succeeds in offering an honest frontline aware and realistic sense of the ethical situations faced by entertainment and journalism professionals every day in the real world Most of the other books about media ethics focus mostly on journalism this book however covers not just journalistic ethics but also ethics in the landscape of mass media including public relations the entertainment industry and other forms of visual communication The author includes numerous case studies about current headlines that readers will already be familiar with providing realistic and engaging scenarios about when how and why ethics count Rubric Stones Frank Kubic,2003 Journal of Singing

,2006 Arts of Engagement Dylan Robinson,Keavy Martin,2016-07-15 Arts of Engagement focuses on the role that music film visual art and Indigenous cultural practices play in and beyond Canada s Truth and Reconciliation Commission on Indian Residential Schools Contributors here examine the impact of aesthetic and sensory experience in residential school history at TRC national and community events and in artwork and exhibitions not affiliated with the TRC Using the framework of aesthetic action the essays expand the frame of aesthetics to include visual aural and kinetic sensory experience and question the ways in which key components of reconciliation such as apology and witnessing have social and political effects for residential school survivors intergenerational survivors and settler publics This volume makes an important contribution to the discourse on reconciliation in Canada by examining how aesthetic and sensory interventions offer alternative forms of political action and healing These forms of aesthetic action encompass both sensory appeals to empathize and invitations to join together in alliance and new relationships as well as refusals to follow the normative scripts of reconciliation Such refusals are important in their assertion of new terms for conciliation terms that resist the imperatives of reconciliation as a form of resolution This collection charts new ground by detailing the aesthetic grammars of reconciliation and conciliation The authors document the efficacies of the TRC for the various Indigenous and settler publics it has addressed and consider the future aesthetic actions that must be taken in order to move beyond what many have identified as the TRC's political limitations Where Is the Teacher? Kyle Wagner, 2024-08-01 Kids today can learn more from a five minute YouTube video or AI chatbot than they can from a full day of lectures So what then is our role as classroom teachers In this groundbreaking book seasoned educator Kyle Wagner explains the new role of the teacher in the 4th industrial revolution You will learn how to shift from being a deliverer of content to a thoughtful designer and facilitator of student centered learning experiences who gently guides from behind the scenes Kyle a veteran co learning experience designer former classroom teacher and school leader unpacks each of the 12 shifts required to build these student centered environments Chapters cover how to shift from a content based to inquiry based approach develop relevant interdisciplinary skills cultivate meaningful student reflection curate beautiful real world work facilitate student led discussion and more Through stories from real student centered classrooms around each shift and anecdotes from the author's experience teaching and leading micro academies you will come away ready to unleash student creativity build thoughtful inquirers and develop self directed learners within your own context Adapting Idols: Authenticity, Identity and Performance in a Global Television Format Joost de

Bruin, 2016-03-16 Since the first series of Pop Idol aired in the UK just over a decade ago Idols television shows have been broadcast in more than forty countries all over the world In all those countries the global Idols format has been adapted to local cultures and production contexts resulting in a plethora of different versions ranging from the Dutch Idols to the Pan Arab Super Star and from Nigerian Idol to the international blockbuster American Idol Despite its worldwide success and widespread journalistic coverage the Idols phenomenon has received only limited academic attention Adapting Idols: Authenticity, Identity and Performance in a Global Television Format brings together original studies from scholars in different parts of the world to identify and evaluate the productive dimensions of Idols As one of the world's most successful television formats Idols offers a unique case for the study of cultural globalization Chapters discuss how Idols shows address particular national or regional identity politics and how Idols is consumed by audiences in different territories This book illustrates that even though the same television format is used in countries all over the globe practices of adaptation can still result in the creation of unique local cultural products Every Student Reads Gail Bush, 2005 Features thoughts on the current state of reading instruction in our schools from leading reading experts action steps for collaborative planning and teaching to empower practitioners exemplary collaborative projects spanning K 12 grade levels and various content areas written in lesson plan format and suggested readings which highlight sources for further study of reading strategies

OverSuccess Jim Rubens, James M. Rubens, 2008 Why are one in three American adults pervasively dissatisfied with their lives Why is major depression seven times more likely among those born after 1970 than their grandparents Why are one in four of us addicted to at least one substance or behavior Why is America drowning in record personal and public debt Why did over 100 000 people humiliate themselves this year auditioning for Fox's American Idol Why are 80 percent of women unhappy with their bodies What is it about contemporary America that connects the swelling incidence of depression behavioral addictions eating disorders debt materialism sleep deprivation family breakdown rudeness fame fixation ethical collapse mistrust and monstrous acts of personal violence Drawing from emerging science in several fields and insights about our transformed social lives Rubens explains how genes commercial culture and global hyper competition have locked tens of millions of Americans into an unwinnable success benchmarks race and unleashed an epidemic of status defeat OverSuccess shows how and why the resulting social and psychological pathologies are different for baby boomers men and women Offering hope for our future Rubens outlines 20 ways that individuals businesses and voluntary organizations can satisfy the American drive for recognition and personal achievement without the toxic burdens of OverSuccess These cures range from holding the door for strangers and somatic cell gene therapy to responsible displays of wealth and building village scale social and business organizations
