American Guides Wendy Griswold, 2016-08-26 In the midst of the Great Depression Americans were nearly universally literate and they were hungry for the written word With an eye to this market and as a response to unemployment Roosevelt's Works Progress Administration created the Federal Writers Project They produced the Project's American Guides an impressively produced series that set out not only to direct travelers on which routes to take and what to see throughout the country but also to celebrate the distinctive characteristics of each individual state The series unintentionally diversified American literary culture's cast of characters promoting women minority and rural writers while it also institutionalized the innovative idea that American culture comes in state shaped boxes Guide to America; a Treasury of Information about Its States, Cities, Parks, and Historical Points of Interest, 1947 Catalogue, WPA Writers' Program Publications Writers' Program (U.S.), United States. President's Commission on Coal, 1980 At the conclusion of the 110 day coal miners strike in March of 1978 President Carter appointed John D Jay Rockefeller IV to head up the first major federal study of coal mining in America in three decades One of the main tasks of the President's Commission on Coal PCC was in the words of Ben Franklin who covers coal for the New York Times to search out the roots of labor management bitterness that not only prolonged the record walkout but for decades has resulted in strikes every three years To President Carter who expressed a desire to place greater emphasis on domestically produced coal as an energy source and to business interests there were questions of great importance review essay by Alan Banks Appalachian Journal SUMMER 1982 Vol 9 No 4 SUMMER 1982 pp 295 301 essential features of each building free from the later alterations and decay which would be recorded by the camera These illustrations have been compiled on the basis of intensive research from old photographs maps drawings and other records An album of halftone illustrations many of which are reproductions of old photographs of buildings which have been altered or demolished supplements these illustrations Information Guidance Series United States.
