Westmoreland's War Gregory Daddis, 2014 This groundbreaking study offers a major reinterpretation of American strategy during the first half of the Vietnam War Gregory A Daddis argues senior military leaders developed a comprehensive campaign strategy one not confined to attrition of enemy forces This innovative work is a must for a genuine understanding of the Vietnam War 2001 Magruder's American Government William A. McClenaghan, Frank Abbott Magruder, 2001

Research in Education, 1974 Global Entertainment Media Anne Cooper-Chen, 2006-04-21 Global Entertainment Media offers a unique perspective on entertainment media worldwide As one of the first comprehensive books to address entertainment mass media worldwide it addresses students as TV watchers and takes them to new places both geographically and intellectually Editor Anne Cooper Chen has gathered an international group of scholars to explore such concepts as psychology gratifications and effects of media entertainment and its relation to national cultures as well as to discuss the business of international TV trade by transnational media corporations In this volume experts discuss the content audiences and cultural and legal aspects of their respective countries all of which are major TV markets The country specific chapters draw on the individual insights expertise and currency of 10 resident authors Contributions represent every hemisphere of the globe offering detailed examinations of media entertainment in United Kingdom Germany Egypt Nigeria South Africa India Japan China Brazil and Mexico The two concluding chapters provide cross national case studies that look at familiar TV experiences The Olympics and the Who Wants to Be a Millionaire show in global and novel ways Global Entertainment Media is intended for students in international media comparative media cross cultural communication and television studies and it also has much to offer scholars and researchers in entertainment media Resources in Education

, 1998-04 Nexus Analysis Ronald Scollon, Suzanne B. K. Scollon, 2004 Review Using as a study their own experience of pioneering computer mediated communication in Alaska in the late 1970s and early 1980s the authors conduct a nexus analysis of those events and discourses As email and audio video conferencing technologies expanded the possibilities for education and social interaction the authors played an active role in shaping and analyzing their use Looking back on that early formative period and assessing its impact on the present world the authors evaluate moments of social importance in order to examine the linkages among social practices Alaskan peoples and technologies They consider the power of communication media to cause and ramify change BOOK JACKET Nexus Analysis Suzie Wong Scollon, 2004-07-31 Nexus Analysis presents an exciting theory by two of the leading names in discourse analysis and provides a practical guide to its application The authors argue that discourse analysis can itself be a form of social action If the discourse analyst is part of the nexus of practice under study then the analysis can itself transform that nexus of practice Focussing on their own involvement with and analysis of pioneering communication technologies in Alaska they identify moments of social importance in order to examine the links between social practice culture and technology Media are identified not only as

means of expressing change but also as catalysts for change itself with the power to transform the socio cultural landscape In this intellectually exciting yet accessible book Ron Scollon and Suzie Wong Scollon present a working example of their theory in action and provide a personal snapshot of a key moment in the history of communication technology as the Internet transformed Alaskan life

Social Problems Anna Leon-Guerrero, 2013-04-03 Empower your students to become part of the solution With a clear and upbeat voice this thought provoking overview of social problems challenges readers to understand and recognize social problems in their communities and inspires them to become part of the solution The Fourth Edition of this popular book goes beyond the typical presentation of contemporary social problems and their consequences by emphasizing the importance and effectiveness of community involvement to achieve real solutions With an overarching focus on social inequalities and policy this proven text provides a platform for discussion that encourages critical thinking and inspires hope

The Powers of the Presidency, 2013 This is a comprehensive and illustrative work on the historical and contemporary perspective on presidential powers guiding readers through the presidency as a constitutional office with many updated features from the previous edition

E-development Robert Schware, 2005-01-01 Information and communication technologies ICTs are increasingly being recognized as essential tools of development tools that can empower poor people enhance skills increase productivity and improve governance at all levels The success of ICT enabled development or e development will thus not be measured by the diffusion of technology but by advances in development itself economic growth and ultimately achievement of the Millenium Development Goals This volume examines a wide range of issues related to e development with a focus on the requirements and realities of using ICTs to advance development goals The report does not attempt to present a comprehensive overview of e development Rather it highlights key issues that have immediate relevance to policy makers in developing nations who make decisions on investments and development goals It highlights two issues in particular e government and e education because ICT applications in these areas can lead to significant development outcomes and can also be successfully deployed through public private partnerships leveraging limited government funding to achieve greater impact
